8:00am-9:00am  BREAKFAST

SESSION I: COMING INTO ALIGNMENT
9:00am-12:30pm
After real-time polling to determine the sense of the group on a variety of issues, and a review of the feedback from the prior day, we'll hear from a special guest Rick Santorum and then divide into small groups to deliberate on key facets of a modern conservative vision.

9:00am-9:30am  REAL-TIME POLLING
Attendees will respond via their mobile devices to a variety of poll questions, seeing the group's responses in real-time. We will also see how the group fixed the federal budget.

9:30am-10:00am  REMARKS BY RICK SANTORUM
The political environment in Washington today is often discouraging, and the 2024 election cycle promises to be stressful and chaotic. How should conservatives understand and find meaning in their work and what goals should they set for the short-, medium-, and long-term?

10:00am-12:30pm  CONSERVATIVE ECONOMICS ROUNDTABLES
Attendees will participate in facilitated discussions on the key elements of a new conservative vision and agenda. In addition to pre-planned topics listed below, participants will have the opportunity to suggest additional topics during “On the Horizon” the day before. Results of these discussions will be synthesized into a document that forms the basis of a presentation and discussion the following morning. Each attendee will participate in two 70-minute discussions, separated by a 10-minute break.

Topics will include:

- Defining the Challenge—narratives of American distress, diagnoses of underlying problems, identification of key culprits

- Core Principles—conservative values, non-negotiables, the contours of a coalition

- Goals and Aspirations—the vision for flourishing families, vital communities, and a strong nation

- Government’s Role—the American tradition, what government is good for, reinforcing the constitutional order

- A New Agenda—categories and framework, top priorities, opportunities to define the debate

Moderated by Oren Cass, Duncan Braid, Chris Griswold, Oliver Traldi and Abigail Salvatore, as well as attendees whose proposed topics are selected

12:30pm-1:30pm

LUNCH DEBRIEF
Participants will share reactions to topics discussed in the panels. Discussion questions will be provided.

Hosted by Duncan Braid
SESSION II: POLICY MAKING IN PRACTICE
1:30pm-4:30pm
Attendees will participate in an American Compass program on negotiation, attempting to forge an agreement on a hypothetical legislative package.

1:30pm-1:45pm
PLENARY: THE HOUSE WILL COME TO ORDER
An introduction to the simulation and brief explanation of rules and scoring.

1:45pm-4:30pm
BREAKOUT: HOW HARD COULD IT REALLY BE?
A challenge in all policy making is aligning the interests of the necessary stakeholders. In groups of 10 to 12, attendees will engage in a simulated exercise where they will attempt to reach an agreement necessary to pass a hypothetical package of legislation. They will be assigned roles of key parts of a hypothetical political coalition, including leaders of political factions in the government, industry associations, and outside pressure groups each with different and, at times, conflicting priorities. The simulation will be scored, and there will be prizes.

Hosted by Duncan Braid

Invitation

American Compass Workshop on Conservative Economics
Friday, April 5 – Sunday, April 7, 2024
Hyatt Regency Chesapeake Bay
Cambridge, MD

The American Compass Workshop on Conservative Economics is an annual event our organization holds to provide American Compass members with the opportunity to encounter political and economic ideas that can help shape a new conservative consensus. At the workshop, we will explore new approaches to industrial policy, labor, family formation, financial regulation, and many other topics essential to developing that new consensus. Via our panels, guest speakers, and policy modules, we will endeavor to increase the fluency of each participant in these issues so that they are better equipped to engage in a number of ongoing, critical policy debates.

You are being invited because of your interest in conservative economic policy. If you choose to attend, we will cover your lodging, meals, and provide a charter bus between Cambridge, MD and DC.

Sincerely,

Oren Cass
Executive Director
