Mr. Jedediah Ober
Office of the Honorable Susan Wild
1027 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Ober:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your and your spouse's proposed trip to Middleburg, Virginia, scheduled for March 22 to 24, 2024, sponsored by Center Forward.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

— Biden Administration Official (Multiple Invites - Speaker TBD)
- 9:45 am - 10:45 am Panel Discussion — “From City Streets to Country Roads: Striving for Equitable Healthcare Outcomes for Underserved Communities”

This panel brings together experts to engage in a dialogue on the critical issue of health equity in three distinct contexts: rural communities, urban communities, and minority populations. Recognizing that disparities in healthcare access and outcomes exist across these different landscapes, the panelists aim to shed light on the unique challenges faced by underserved individuals and communities. The panel seeks to foster a comprehensive understanding of health equity challenges and collaboratively explore strategies that promote inclusivity and ensure that every individual can access high-quality, culturally sensitive, and equitable healthcare.

Panel Discussion — Bipartisan Legislative Opportunities in 2024

Center Forward leadership and leading polling experts discuss recent research on voters’ attitudes towards bipartisanship and the perceived efficiency of government. Researchers also discuss areas where Americans broadly agree on issues, noting potential possibilities for bipartisan legislation and solutions in 2024.

- Cori Kramer, CEO, Center Forward
- Matt Monday, Morning Consult

1:30 pm - 2:45 pm

Lunch — Middleburg Foyer

Panel Discussion — Companies in Crossfire: Pressure Testing Business Leadership

Policy and politics are impacting companies more now than ever. The “safety space” where CEOs could weigh in on taxes and economics is now overshadowed by a longer list of issues that affect employees, customers, and the communities where businesses operate and lead. Voting rights, reproductive health, social issues, and diversity & inclusion programs are all issues that CEOs must navigate carefully. Non-traditional stakeholder voices are weighing in more loudly, creating opportunities and challenges. This panel will bring together leaders across sectors to examine this moment, share learnings and discuss business leadership in this challenging time.

- Joanna Smith-Ramani Co-Executive Director, Aspen Institute Financial Security Program
- Ying McGuire, CEO, National Minority Supplier Diversity Council
- Dane Linn, Senior Vice President of Corporate Initiatives, Business Roundtable
