Mr. Michael Burnside
Office of the Honorable Marc Veasey
2348 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Burnside:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to United Kingdom, scheduled for May 8 to 12, 2024, sponsored by the Third Way Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the “Travel” schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts “of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy” by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

Please be aware that the Committee’s review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department’s Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at https://step.state.gov.

Mr. Mike Burnside
Senior Policy Advisor
Rep. Marc Veasey
2348 Rayburn House Office Building

Dear Mike,

On behalf of the Progressive Policy Institute (PPI), I’d like to invite you to join us and fellow policy experts for a congressional staff delegation trip to London, England. Departure is scheduled for the evening of May 8, and the return is scheduled for the evening of Sunday, May 12.

The trip will focus on the global energy transition and related policy issues surrounding generation, infrastructure, trade, national security, and international relations. The first two days on the ground will be packed with high-level meetings with energy experts, policy makers, and industry practitioners. And on May 11, we will conclude the trip by attending the Progressive Britain Conference.

This year’s Progressive Britain Conference will be one of the last major convenings for the UK Labour Party before the upcoming general election, which Labour is currently favored to win. Our delegation will engage with several top policy leaders and candidates at the conference to discuss Labour’s governing vision, as well as their environmental and energy policy priorities.

PPI has longstanding ties with policy and political leaders in the UK, dating back to the early 1990s. Over the past two decades, PPI has continued to strengthen these ties, hosting dozens of delegation trips to discuss shared policy challenges. This trip to London — a financial hub that plays host to many important energy companies — marks the latest effort in our continued endeavor to foster the transatlantic dialogue between the United States and UK.

You have been invited to join us because of your policy expertise and the leading role your boss plays on energy and environmental issues. We believe the high-level meetings and informative discussions you will engage in on this trip will be a tremendous resource as you continue this important work in Congress.

PPI is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization with a mission of providing educational programming on current policy issues. This trip will comply with all U.S. House and Senate ethics rules.
We kindly ask that you RSVP no later than Monday, April 1 in order to ensure compliance with congressional ethics rules. Space is limited; please contact Neel Brown at 703-403-5289 or nbrown@ppionline.org if you have questions.
