TOUR OF ALLEGIANT STADIUM: COUNTY FINANCING & ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Since its opening in 2020, Allegiant Stadium has hosted some of the nation's largest events such as the Super Bowl and Las Vegas Bowl. As the second most expensive stadium in the world, Allegiant Stadium is expected to generate an economic benefit of $620 million annually while creating 6,000 permanent jobs. Before the stadium was up and running, Clark County played a pivotal role in financing the public portion of the project. Now that Allegiant Stadium is fully operating, Clark County has experienced additional impacts including strengthening its emergency response services and experiencing economic development changes in the area. Participants will be joined by county leaders and Allegiant Stadium representatives for a tour and discussion of the construction, financing and operation of the stadium and its impact on the surrounding area and residents.

UNDERSTANDING CLARK COUNTY’S HOUSING EFFORTS

Counties play a crucial role in addressing housing affordability and promoting sustainable housing solutions, including planning and zoning, funding and financing and community engagement and partnerships. Clark County estimates that there are approximately 7,900 people experiencing homelessness in Southern Nevada on any given night and over 19,000 people in the county will experience homelessness at least once this year. On an average year, the county helps or provides services to more than 45,000 people. In 2021, Clark County built on a program that first begun during the COVID-19 pandemic – replacing formerly abandoned motels – to provide temporary housing and services for families, individuals and older adults experiencing homelessness with the assistance of American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA) dollars. Participants will hear from local representatives about the program and current and future efforts to help these populations remain housed.

- Brenda Barnes, Assistant Manager, Clark County Social Services and Director of Southern Nevada Homelessness Continuum of Care

BREAKFAST

8:00 AM PT – 11:00 AM MT

DEPART & TRAVEL TO WASHINGTON COUNTY

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM

ATV RIDE: BRIEFING ON WASHINGTON COUNTY’S FEDERAL LANDS MANAGEMENT

Sixty-two percent of counties have federal lands within their boundaries. Even though they are not able to collect property taxes on federal land, county governments must still provide essential services for our residents and those who visit public lands each year including law enforcement, search and rescue operations, fire protection and much more. Participants will partake in an ATV *tour throughout Washington County, which is almost 74 percent federally owned, and hear from county law enforcement and search and rescue officials, about current operations and federal programs that support the county's ability to provide services including the Payment in Lieu of Taxes and Secure Rural Schools programs. Please wear appropriate hiking shoes and attire.

- Hon. Adam Snow, Commissioner, Washington County
- Nate Brooksby, Sheriff, Washington County

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

ATV RIDE: WASHINGTON COUNTY & ENDANGERED SPECIES

*Counties play a crucial role in environmental stewardship through various initiatives and collaborations aimed at enhancing sustainability and conservation efforts. A major part of these efforts includes protecting endangered species and implementing the Endangered Species Act due to our responsibilities in land use, infrastructure projects and local conservation efforts. During this tour and briefing, participants will hear about the collaborative effort between Washington County, the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and U.S. Bureau of Land Management to develop the County's Habitat Conservation Plan (HCP) to mitigate and minimize the impacts of endangered species, like the Mojave Desert tortoise. Lunch will be provided.

- Cameron Rognan, Biologist and Habitat Conservation Plan Administrator
- Eric Clark, Washington County Attorney

1:00 PM – 2:30 PM

LUNCH BRIEFING ON RURAL MEDICAL EMERGENCY SERVICES

Emergency Medical Services (EMS) in rural counties are a lifeline for residents where access to healthcare is limited and distances to hospitals are significant. In Washington County, the vast and diverse landscape underscores the need for a well-coordinated EMS system to effectively serve its rural population, ensuring that all residents receive the critical care they need. During this lunch briefing, participants will hear more about the necessary federal resources needed to ensure all residents in rural communities have access to care.

- Hon. Adam Snow, Commissioner, Washington County
- Nate Brooksby, Sheriff, Washington County

2:30 PM – 4:30 PM

ATV RIDE: WASHINGTON COUNTY'S WATER CONSERVANCY DISTRICT

To continue our conversation around local conservation efforts, participants will hear a presentation while overlooking the Washington County Water Conservancy District, which was established in 1962 to manage the County's water needs. The District is charged with conserving, developing, managing and stabilizing water supplies within the county in an ongoing effort to provide a safe, sustainable water supply for current and future generations. During the tour, participants will hear from local and federal leaders about mixed funding to maintain the District and the intergovernmental partnership needed to maintain its current scope of responsibilities, including the management of reservoirs, pipelines, wells, water storage tanks, treatment plants, hydropower plants, and diversion dams – all of which are capable of producing more than 60 million gallons of water a day.

- Zach Renstrom, Managing Director of the Water Conservancy District
- Karry Rathje, Water Conservancy District

7:00 AM – 8:00 AM

BREAKFAST

8:00 AM – 8:45 PM

TRAVEL TO ZION NATIONAL PARK

8:45 AM – 4:00 PM

TOURING ZION NATIONAL PARK: PUBLIC LANDS AND COUNTIES

*Counties play a critical role in supporting federal agencies like the Bureau of Land Management (BLM) and the U.S. Forest Service in managing national parks and public lands. To continue the conversation from the previous day, participants will partake in an all-day briefing while hiking throughout Zion National Park to get a firsthand look of local issues on the ground. We collaborate with these agencies to ensure effective stewardship, infrastructure maintenance and service delivery for residents and visitors. Strong intergovernmental partnerships are essential for developing policies, planning, and resource management strategies that align with federal laws and local priorities. By leveraging programs like PILT and SRS, counties can sustain their contributions to public lands while promoting economic prosperity. NACo emphasizes the importance of balancing multiple use and sustained yield to preserve public access and ensure the long-term viability of these treasured resources. In addition to hearing from county leaders, participants will also hear from officials from the BLM, FWS and NPS about how federal and local partners work together to achieve the shared goal for responsible forest management. Please wear hiking shoes and appropriate hiking attire. Lunch will be provided at Zion Lodge.

- Hon. Adam Snow, Commissioner, Washington County
- Jeff Bradybaugh, Superintendent, Zion National Park
- Jason West, Washington County Field Manager. U.S. Bureau of and Management
- George Weekley, Field Office Supervisor for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service

RETURN TO HOTEL

7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

Entrada, 2537 Entrada Trail

DINNER AND BRIEFING ON RURAL COUNTY ISSUES

During this pre-dinner briefing, participants will hear about the broad and unique challenges faced by rural counties, which make up 70 percent of the nation’s counties. From providing emergency medical services to broadband development and deployment, rural counties are on the frontlines of protecting the safety and security of our residents despite limited funds and resources. Participants will also hear about the unique relationship between county and tribal governments.

- Hon. Adam Snow, Commissioner, Washington County
- Mark Echohawk, Partner, Echoc Hawk & Olsen

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER – WASHINGTON COUNTY & DEPARTURE

7:00 AM – 9:30 AM

1002 N. Snow Canyon Dr.

BREAKFAST BRIEFING AND SUNRISE HIKE AT SNOW CANYON

*During this breakfast briefing and hike at Snow Canyon, state and local leaders will highlight the operational differences between state and national parks, highlighting their unique management structures and funding mechanisms. Participants will gain insight into the critical role counties play in maintaining national parks, including providing essential services such as law enforcement and infrastructure support. By exploring these partnerships, attendees will understand how state, federal, and local entities collaborate to ensure the sustainability and accessibility of public lands. Breakfast will be provided.

- Scott Strong, State Director of Utah State Parks Division

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM

DEPARTING LUNCH AT HYATT ST. GEORGE HOTEL

Washington County leaders will debrief participants about the top issues discussed over the last two days and how federal and local leaders can work to strengthen the intergovernmental partnership.

- Hon. Adam Snow, Commissioner, Washington County

LIST OF INVITEES

National Association of Counties (NACo)
2024 Federal Fellowship Program – Clark County, Nev. and Washington County, Utah
September 3-6, 2024

The National Association of Counties (NACo) is a 501(c)(4) national nonprofit that was formed in 1935 to serve and strengthen America’s counties. As an association of public elected officials, NACo is not a specific interest group but a major partner in our nation’s Federalism system of intergovernmental entities. The participants listed below play a critical role in this system, working for elected officials, congressional committees and federal agencies that appropriate funds or develop federal policy and regulations that affect counties. For many of these individuals, this trip will complement NACo’s site visit to Los Angeles and Orange Counties, Calif. earlier this year by showcasing the critical programs and services that rural counties provide to our residents. For others, this trip will serve as the first opportunity to enhance their understanding of county government by witnessing the role they play in their residents’ lives every day.

Office of the Honorable Pete Aguilar
108 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Sugarman:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Las Vegas, Nevada, and St. George, Utah, scheduled for September 3 to 6, 2024, sponsored by National Association of Counties.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman
