Dear Ms. Dedrick:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Keswick, Virginia, scheduled for October 7 to 9, 2024, sponsored by Center Forward.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

Hi everyone,

This is your official invitation to attend the 2024 Center Forward Fall Issues Conference at Keswick Hall in Keswick, Virginia from October 7th-9th, 2024. Please use the registration link below to complete the registration process. Only those who have received an official invite will be permitted to register, so please do not forward this link. You must use the email at which you are receiving this invite to register, otherwise your registration will fail.

The registration link can be found here: <https://forms.gle/HQBJNGfwP5xt1eAL9>

Attached you will find the necessary ethics forms. You must complete the attached Traveler Form and submit it to the House Ethics Committee by 5:00 pm on Monday September 9th, 2024 along with the Primary Trip Sponsor Form, Primary Sponsor Supplemental Form 2024 - Staff, and the Conference Agenda. Please notify me once you have submitted your materials to the House Ethics Committee. Please note that we have included folks on this list who have indicated they would be interested in attending and that regardless of attendance, the names on the supplemental form will be disclosed by the House Ethics Committee.

Due to limited capacity at Keswick Hall, we are only able to offer rooms to the first 20 people who complete registration. Please complete your registration at your earliest convenience to reserve your spot at the conference.

If you have any questions, do not hesitate to reach out. If your plans have changed and you are no longer able to attend this year, please let me know. And, of course, please let me know if there's any additional information we can provide! We look forward to having you join us for a productive conference at Keswick Hall.

Best,

12. Sponsor's interest in the subject matter and role in organizing the trip:

Center Forward's Fall Issues Conference is being convened to bring together pragmatic policy influencers from various industries, organizations, and the public sector to focus on common-sense solutions. Center Forward's organizational mission is to provide centrists the information they need to craft common-sense solutions and provide support in turning those ideas into results. Center Forward brings together Members of Congress, not-for profits, academic experts, trade associations, corporations, and unions to find common ground.

Center Forward is the sole organizer of the trip. Center Forward is planning the Conference and is responsible for the organization and execution of the event logistics as well as the programming content. Discussion topics will include: The pressures currently affecting global supply chains and the ways that Congress can improve the security of American supply chains; analyzing solutions the address the current challenges facing the workforce; building bicameral relationships; balancing competing legislative priorities including emerging technologies and artificial intelligence, healthcare, and trade; working across the aisle in Congress to examining the outlook of leadership; positioning our current political moment within historical context; and the importance of finding ways to put aside partisan differences and work together to solve America's challenges. Participants are expected to include policymakers and advocacy groups as well as business leaders, academic researchers, and a member of the press.
