Mr. Andrew Orlebeke
Office of the Honorable Janice Schakowsky
2408 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Orlebeke:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Honduras,¹ scheduled for October 7 to 13, 2024, sponsored by Partnership for Participatory International Policy and Foundation to Promote Open Society.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Michael Guest". The first letter "M" is large and loops around the first few letters of the name.

Andrew Orlebeke
Office of Congresswoman Jan Schakowsky
2408 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

To the Office of Congresswoman Jan Schakowsky:

I am writing to invite Andrew Orlebeke to attend a delegation to Honduras from October 7th - 13th, 2024.

The delegation will be focused on the role of US policies in Honduras, and, specifically, the effects of US military, trade, and development policies on Garifuna and Indigenous communities, students and youth, and the LGBTQ community. This is an especially critical time to evaluate the effects of US support of the Juan Orlando administration and to accompany the Honduran people as they work to reestablish their democracy.

We will coordinate all aspects of the schedule and forms for the House Ethics Committee, and we will cover all expenses for the trip.

Thank you for considering this important delegation, and for your office's ongoing interest and leadership in the region.

Sincerely,
Elise Roberts

Tuesday, October 8th

6:00 am: Rep. Delia Ramirez departs Guatemala City (GUA) on Tag flight 320
7:00 am: Rep. Delia Ramirez arrives in San Pedro Sula (SAP) on Tag flight 320
7:00 – 7:30 am: Rep. Delia Ramirez clears customs and secure baggage
7:30 – 8:00 am: Rep. Delia Ramirez travels to Hotel Casa Blanca in El Progreso
8:00 – 9:30 am: Working breakfast and orientation at Hotel Casa Blanca

- Delegates will review (1) the final agenda, (2) security expectations and protocol, (3) leadership roles for the trip, and (4) recent US policy initiatives in the region. Delegates will have the opportunity to introduce themselves and hear from delegation leaders and interpreters. This meeting is important because it provides expectations and logistical information that delegates will need throughout the trip. The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Presenters: Elise Roberts and Karen Spring, P-PIP
- Location: Hotel Casa Blanca, Km 30 Carretera CA-13 Salida a Tela, El Progreso

9:30 – 11:00 am: Drive from Progreso to Tela, with briefing on the way

- Delegates will be briefed on the day's meetings with OFRANEH. This meeting is important because it provides historical background of the Garifuna population in Honduras and details on the current locations and communities we will be visiting. This information will be needed for understanding the days presentations and informing future policy initiatives that impact Garifuna communities. The entirety of the allotted time for travel will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Presenter: Karen Spring, P-PIP
- Location: Private bus

11:00 – 1:00 pm: Community visit in San Juan

- Delegates will visit the Garifuna community of San Juan del Mar. Delegates will learn about the root causes of migration from Garifuna communities in Honduras and the impact of US foreign policy initiatives in the region, along with Garifuna-led initiatives to reduce outward migration. Delegates will meet with community members directly affected by displacement and disappearances, and learn about the impact of US policies on outward migration. This meeting is important for delegates to understand why the displacement and outward migration of Garifuna communities is described locally as a genocide, and the specific rights they hold at the UN and in international legal bodies as both Indigenous and Garifuna populations. This meeting is critical to ensuring the Garifuna population is included in delegates' analysis of future policies related to trade and migration in the region. The entirety of the allotted time for the lunch and presentations will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Facilitators: Deinor Castillo, OFRANEH Representative in the community of San Juan.
- Location: San Juan, Calle Principal, Tela, Atlántida

1:00 – 1:30 pm: Travel from San Juan to Triunfo de la Cruz

1:30 – 2:30 pm: Lunch at Playa Escondido

2:30 – 4:30 pm: Community visit in Triunfo de la Cruz

- Delegates will learn about the links between displacement, land conflicts, and outward migration, and be able to see firsthand the land featured in major IACHR cases. This meeting is important to provide broader context to the IACHR cases and the US role in supporting their implementation. This meeting is also important because it will highlight the intersections between IACHR and Investor-State Dispute Settlement (ISDS) processes and rulings, which will be critical for delegates to consider for future policies navigating domestic and international legal jurisdiction.
- Facilitators: Alfredo López, Triunfo de la Cruz OFRANEH representative
- Location: Playa Escondida, Triunfo de la Cruz

4:30 – 6:30 pm: Drive from Triunfo de la Cruz to La Ceiba

6:30 – 8:00 pm: Check in to hotel, dinner at Hotel La Quinta

Overnight at Hotel La Quinta in La Ceiba

Wednesday, October 9th

8:00 – 9:00 am: Breakfast at the hotel

9:00 – 11:00 am: Travel to Tocoa in the region of the Aguan Valley, with briefing on the way

- Delegates will learn about the current status of the legal cases, and delegates will have opportunities to ask questions. This meeting is important to provide the legal details and framework for landmark international legal cases, which have implications for future policies between the US and Honduras. In particular, this meeting will provide delegates with information about the intersections between international law, US policies, and Honduran policies, and will be especially important for delegates to consider future policy initiatives related to legal jurisdiction and implication of legal verdicts across international borders. One hour of the allotted time for travel will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenter: Karen Spring
- Location: Private bus

11:00 - 12:00 : Lunch in Tocoa

12:00 - 12:20: Travel to the Municipal Committee in Defense of Public and Common Goods

12:20- 2:20 pm: Meet with the Municipal Committee in Defense of Public and Common Goods

- Delegates will meet with the Municipal Committee that recently suffered a significant loss when one of their principal leaders, Juan Antonio López was assassinated on September 14, 2024. Juan, along with the Committee and local residents in the region were opposing a mega project involving energy generation and mining inside the Carlos Escaleras National Park with ties to a U.S. steel company. This meeting is important to hear firsthand the dynamics between US businesses and local communities, and the domestic and international policies to support good business practices and employment opportunities in Honduras.
- Presenter: Esly Banegas, Member of the Coordinating Committee for the Municipal Committee
- Location: Offices of the Fundación San Alonso, Barrio Nuevo, Tocoa, Colon.

2:20 - 2:30 pm: Travel to the house of Juan Lopez

2:30 - 3:00 pm: Meeting with family members of Juan Lopez

- Delegates will have the opportunity to hear from the family of Juan Lopez, to hear more personal reflections about the impact of his work, his life, and his recent assassination. As the first delegation to visit the Aguan since the assassination, it is important that the delegates meet with the family. This meeting is important because delegates will hear a firsthand account of the impact of his assassination, and how violence against land defenders causes people to migrate due to fear and economic insecurity. The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Facilitator: Karen Spring, P-PIP
- Location: Lopez home in Tocoa

3:00 - 3:30 pm: Travel from house of Juan Lopez to the offices of the Coordinador of Popular Organizations of the Aguan
(COPA)

3:30 - 6:30 pm: Community presentations with the Agrarian Platform

- Delegates will hear from two small farming communities, including presentations on food sovereignty, land recovery efforts, and state violence. Communities will discuss the progression of their efforts to build community-run agricultural projects as alternatives to African palm oil production, and they will discuss the effects of US development policies. This meeting provides delegates the opportunity to learn about Honduran-led projects to provide jobs and deter migration. Delegates will also learn about the challenges of international development projects in the Aguan Valley, including the relationship between US military aid and development projects in the region. This meeting will provide delegates the opportunity to hear firsthand accounts of how multiple US policy initiatives intersect in Honduras.

- Facilitator: Yoni Rivas, Executive Committee of the Agrarian Platform (Colon).
- Location: Tres cuadras abajo de la posta policial, Barrio Palma, Tocoa, Colon.

6:30 - 7:00 pm: Travel to hotel in Tocoa

7:00 - 8:00 pm: Dinner at hotel in Tocoa.

Overnight at Hotel Sanabria, Tocoa

Thursday, October 10th:

8:00 - 8:30 am: Breakfast and working meeting

8:30 - 10:30 am: Travel to La Ceiba with briefing on the way

- Delegates will debrief the meetings in the Aguan, including reviewing recent Congressional actions and statements. This meeting is important to ensure delegates understand the complex history and current reality in the region, and to frame their visit within previous and recent actions in the US Congress. One hour of the allotted time for travel will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Facilitator: Karen Spring, P-PIP
- Location: Private bus

10:30 - 12:00: Working Lunch and meeting with EarthRights International

- Delegates will hear about the recent EarthRights International and local small farmer communities' legal case in the US against the World Bank and the plan to distribute the settlement money. This meeting is important because it provides the background details of a landmark case that could influence future legal actions against International Financial Institutions and U.S. policy initiatives to address these accountability and human rights issues. The entirety of the allotted time for the working lunch will be spent covering officially-connected activity.
- Annie Bird, private consultant working with EarthRights International and Gabriela Diaz, EarthRights International
- Location: Aparthotel Pico Bonito, Carretera a Tela, al lado del aeropuerto, La Ceiba, Atlantida.

2:00 pm: Depart La Ceiba airport (LCE) on Aerolineas Sosa flight 74

2:40 pm: Arrive at Tegucigalpa airport on Aerolineas Sosa flight 74

2:40- 3:30 pm: Deplane, travel to Hotel Honduras Maya

3:15- 3:30 pm: Check into hotel

3:30- 5:30 pm: Briefing and preparation for government meetings the following day

- Delegates will learn about the Honduran officials they will be meeting with the following day. Delegates will have time to discuss their priorities and questions for the day's meetings. This meeting is critical for delegates to prepare for the meetings with the Honduran government, ensuring they are prepared with accurate references/quotes from previous meetings and streamlined questions to make the meeting productive and efficient.

- Facilitators: Karen Spring and Elise Roberts
- Location: Hotel Honduras Maya, Avenida Republica de Chile, Tegucigalpa, Francisco Morazán

5:30- 6:45 pm: Dinner at Hotel Honduras Maya

6:45 - 7:00 pm: Travel to Hostal La Ronda

7:00- 9:00 pm: Presentation with feminist leaders and artisans

- Delegates will hear about violence against women in Honduras and the specific ways outward migration affects girls, women, and families. Delegates will learn about the challenges artists and musicians face in Honduras, along with the local organizing to create more opportunities. Delegates will also learn about the specific causes of outward migration for women and families, and both domestic and international initiatives to address these sectors. This meeting will be especially important for delegates to consider future policy initiatives to address outward migration of children and families.

12: The Partnership for Participatory International Policy (P-PIP) is a national organization with a mission focused on facilitating meaningful interactions between elected officials, their staff, and individuals directly affected by US policies and practices. Our core commitment lies in supporting international grassroots delegations, allowing policymakers to engage directly with those impacted; our goal is fostering informed policy-making and a greater understanding of the historical and current real-world implications of US policies. P-PIP supported the logistical planning for the trip, and P-PIP's director will travel on the delegation.

15(b)2: The objective of the delegation is to hear directly from Hondurans about the impacts of US policies on migration and democratic processes. The specific locations and meetings were chosen based on where the organizers have strong relationships and can ensure the safety of the delegates.

16: Hotel Name: Hotel Plaza San Martin City: Tegucigalpa Cost Per Night: $107
