David Schutt is the Executive Director of the House Sustainable Energy & Environment Coalition (SEEC), which is a caucus of 98 members pushing for strong climate policies. The purpose of this trip is to see how policies and investments passed by Congress are having an impact on the ground. The trip organizers have scheduled relevant site visits and discussions with climate and clean energy leaders who wouldn't otherwise come to D.C. Part of the role of SEEC is to educate its members on what is actually happening out in the country related to our policies, so the activities on this trip are highly relevant to the activities of SEEC's Executive Director.

9. Yes No Is the traveler aware of any registered federal lobbyists or foreign agents involved in planning, organizing, requesting, or arranging the trip?

10. For staff travelers, to be completed by your employing Member:

ADVANCED AUTHORIZATION OF EMPLOYEE TRAVEL

I hereby authorize the individual named above, an employee of the U.S. House of Representatives who works under my direct supervision, to accept expenses for the trip described in this request. I have determined that the above-described travel is in connection with my employee's official duties and that acceptance of these expenses will not create the appearance that the employee is using public office for private gain.

ONE HUNDRED NINETEENTH CONGRESS

U.S. House of Representatives

COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

Washington, DC 20515

March 5, 2025

Mr. David Schutt
Sustainable Energy & Environment Coalition
2269 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Schutt:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York, New York, scheduled for March 27 to 29, 2025, sponsored by Sustainable Energy and Environment Coalition (SEEC) Institute.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

Re: SEEC Institute NYC Delegation

Good afternoon,

On behalf of SEEC Institute, I am pleased to invite you to join a congressional delegation to New York City from March 27-29, 2025. This will be a fact finding trip to explore important climate, clean energy, and sustainability initiatives. This trip will provide a firsthand look at how innovative policies and investments are driving economic growth, creating jobs, and strengthening communities while addressing the climate crisis. Through site visits, discussions with climate and clean energy leaders, and engagement with experts, you will gain valuable insights into how federal policy can further support and scale these efforts nationwide.

Your leadership is critical in advancing policies that promote clean energy and environmental sustainability. This delegation will be an opportunity to engage with stakeholders shaping the future of these solutions and to bring back lessons that can inform policy making in Washington. We hope you will join us for this important and informative visit.

Sincerely,

Max Frankel
