TRAVELER FORM

1. Name of Traveler: Danielle Hornberger
2. Sponsor(s) who will be paying or providing in-kind support for the trip: The Foundation for Research on Equal Opportunity
3. City and State OR Foreign Country of Travel: Williamsburg, VA
4. a. Date of Departure: March 28, 2025 Date of Return: March 30, 2025
b. Yes No Will you be extending the trip at your personal expense?
If yes, list dates at personal expense: _____
5. a. Yes No Will you be accompanied by a family member at the sponsor's expense? If yes:
 - (1) Name of Accompanying Family Member: _____
 - (2) Relationship to Traveler: Spouse Child Other (specify): _____
 - (3) Yes No Accompanying Family Member is at least 18 years of age?
6. a. Yes No Did the trip sponsor answer "Yes" to Question 8(c) on the Primary Trip Sponsor Form (i.e., travel is sponsored by an entity that employs a registered federal lobbyist or a foreign agent)?
b. If yes, and you are requesting lodging for two nights, explain why the second night is warranted:

7. Yes No Primary Trip Sponsor Form is attached, including agenda, invitation, invitee list, and any other attachments and Additional Sponsor Forms.
NOTE: The agenda should show the traveler's individual schedule, including departure and arrival times and identify the specific events in which the traveler will be participating.
8. Explain why participation in the trip is connected to the traveler's individual official or representational duties. Staff should include their job title and how the activities on the itinerary relate to their duties.
As a Community Liaison for Congressman Harris, it is important to be able to speak to all constituents and reach across the aisle while still promoting core conservative principles. The first topic on the agenda, "Expanding American Conservatism: Freedom As An Engine of Social Mobility" will help me improve upon this. As a representative for a district that relies heavily on certain skilled workers, and is experiencing high numbers of employee shortages, strengthening legal immigration pathways to address workforce shortages, and drive economic growth are topics that will be very helpful to my role as a community liaison and to bring information back to the Congressman as well. Additionally, my casework areas of expertise are Social Security, Medicare, and IRS. It is often my job to bring real life issues to the legislative director regarding these areas.
My Congressman is acutely aware that the deficit is unmanageable and only getting worse. These topics will be covered, and I am excited to share what we learn and discuss. Finally, the group conversations to discuss how to advance legislative agendas will be most useful.
9. Yes No Is the traveler aware of any registered federal lobbyists or foreign agents involved in planning, organizing, requesting, or arranging the trip?
10. For staff travelers, to be completed by your employing Member:

ADVANCED AUTHORIZATION OF EMPLOYEE TRAVEL

I hereby authorize the individual named above, an employee of the U.S. House of Representatives who works under my direct supervision, to accept expenses for the trip described in this request. I have determined that the above-described travel is in connection with my employee's official duties and that acceptance of these expenses will not create the appearance that the employee is using public office for private gain.

Office of the Honorable Andy Harris
15 E. Churchville Road, Ste 102B
Bel Air, MD 21014

Dear Ms. Hornberger:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, scheduled for March 28 to 30, 2025, sponsored by Foundation for Research on Equal Opportunity.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

6. Meetings and Events Attended: Friday, 3/28, upon arrival: Dinner & Program Freedom Conservatism Introduction and Retreat Overview In this session, speakers will talk about Freedom Conservatism and the Statement of Principles. Introduction: John Hood, President, John William Pope Foundation Jonah Goldberg, Columnist, The Dispatch

Saturday 3/29/2025: 8:30 Breakfast Buffet and discussion, 9:00 AM Opening Session:

The Future of School Choice: Federal and State Perspectives Moderator: Rachel Barkley, Executive Director, Alliance for Opportunity (confirmed) Speakers: Andrew Clark, President, yes. every kid. (confirmed) Dan Lipps, Head of Policy, Foundation for American Innovation & Visiting Fellow, FREOPP

This was my favorite topic and in my opinion, most interesting and engaging discussion. The speakers had an amazing depth of knowledge on this subject not only on the movement, the issues with public education and the options on the table, but where legislation has been passed, effective ways that have worked in areas to promote this agenda and how it is working already in a variety of ways in different states. Jackie Gregory and I both spoke with the speakers after and got their contact info.

10:30 am Americans By Choice: Immigration as a Principal Driver of American Prosperity and Achievement Legal immigration enriches America's cultural fabric and plays a vital role in sustaining a strong, dynamic economy, but our current system for managing it is broken. Mario Lopez, Hispanic Leadership Fund Panel Participants: Sandra Benitez, Executive Daniel Di Martino, Graduate Fellow, Manhattan Institute

This was a spirited conversation and Mario and Daniel certainly held differing views. Mario believes in making immigration much easier and more open. Daniel believes that while there is a place for "unskilled workers" that fill US jobs that many Americans do not want, they must not be a "drain on our system". Additionally, we should be incentivizing skilled and educated immigrants. * I spoke with Daniel after the session about H-2B visas very important to our District. He didn't have a card on him, but was happy to reach out to our office when he returned.

12:00 PM Buffet Lunch + Networking 12:30 PM Guided Table Conversations John Hood (Freedom Conservatism) John Hart (Energy) Taylor Barkley, Abundance Institute (AI-Technology) 1:10 PM Transition to Panel

1:15 PM How Pro-Growth Tax Policies and Common Sense Deregulation Help America's Families: Examination of Legislative Approaches to Fiscal Sustainability

In this session, we discussed how the federal debt is overshadowing policy priorities across issues and the pending debt crisis the US may face. The experts noted possible legislative approaches to address our current unsustainable fiscal situation and discussed the three major entitlements (Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid), the $1.1 trillion/year welfare state, and the impact rising and sustained inflation and the ensuing higher interest rates will have on all of this.

2:15 PM AI & Tech Policy This session will delve into strategies for fostering technological growth while safeguarding individual freedoms and advancing conservative principles in the digital age. Moderator: Laura Maristany, Founder & CEO, Katch Skills & Sr. Advisor, Freedom Conservatism

Taylor Barkley, Director of Policy, The Abundance Institute (I was also able to sit at lunch with Mr. Barkley and discuss AI a little more in depth with him)

3:15 PM Challenges & Opportunities: Group Conversations on Managing the Legislative Process to Advance Policies that Work Attendees share out their experience developing and advancing policy agendas. In this session, the speakers shared perspectives on what could be more helpful to help bring together diverse coalitions and to help support their work on Capitol Hill. Larissa Martinez, President, The Women's Public Leadership Network, Rachel Barkley, Executive Director, Alliance for Opportunity, Elizabeth McGuigan, Senior Vice President, Philanthropy Roundtable

*These women were amazing. Jackie Gregory and I not only interacted a lot in this discussion, but also went to the front and spoke with each of them afterward. We were able to get their contact information and will be passing it on to our legislative director too.

5:30 PM Buffet Dinner

6:30 PM Walk to Colonial Williamsburg 7:00 PM Colonial Williamsburg Candlelight Walk This immersive walking tour of Colonial Williamsburg will explore the foundations of American freedom through the lens of early democratic ideals, individual liberty, and limited government. Historical tour provided by Williamsburg "interpreters".

March 30, 2025 8:30 AM Breakfast with Closing Thoughts and Feedback Akash Chougule, President, FREOPP Laura Maristany, Sr. Advisor, Freedom Conservatism

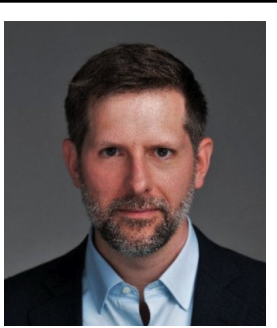

Very informative sessions- we suggest our Legislative director go next time if he can.

FREOPP is hosting this event to help provide Hill staff with learning opportunities on how to apply the timeless principles of liberty to the challenges of the 21st century. Invitations to participate went out to all member offices who identify their approaches as part of the conservative spectrum. This event will give Hill staff the opportunity to learn about ways to apply the timeless principles of liberty to the challenges of the 21st century to improve the lives of Americans who need it most.
