Ms. Lindsay Linhares
Office of the Honorable Julia Letlow
142 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Linhares:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Belgium and Germany,<sup>1</sup> scheduled for May 23 to 31, 2025, sponsored by the Third Way Foundation. We note that this trip includes three days at your personal expense.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

<sup>1</sup> Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Office of U.S. Representative Julia Letlow
142 Cannon House Office Building
27 Independence Ave SE, Washington, DC 20003

Dear Lindsay,

On behalf of the Progressive Policy Institute (PPI), we would like to invite you to join us for a transatlantic delegation to Brussels and Berlin, departing on Monday, May 26th, 2025 and returning on Saturday, May 31st, 2025.

This trip will feature a select, bipartisan group of senior staff in the House and Senate committed to facilitating strong international relations and promoting American prosperity. With a new Congress, a new Administration, and a new E.U. Parliament and Commission, now is an opportune time to exchange ideas on how the U.S. and the E.U. should approach the policy relationship.

PPI first started taking key bipartisan congressional staff to Europe in 2014 and we have hosted delegation trips several times a year since. We have now brought over 170 offices to visit European capitals and exchange dialogues on mutual policy objectives. While E.U. policy proposals can sometimes be at odds with U.S. interests, we believe the best way to approach these issues is to engage in productive dialogues with the decision makers across Europe.

This trip will spend two days in Brussels meeting with key E.U. officials before spending two days in Berlin meeting with the new government and policy experts in the German capital.

Among the key questions and topics we will focus on:

- The Biden/Harris Administration agreed with many of the E.U. regulations on U.S. investment in Europe but the new Administration and Congress will take a more critical approach. How should the U.S. and E.U. approach the regulatory relationship moving forward?
- As the E.U. takes a critical look at its regulatory framework and the impact it is having on investment and growth (see the Draghi report) what best practices from the U.S. can we offer?
- What will the international energy policy landscape look like in the new year following a cold European winter, the interruption of natural gas through Ukraine pipelines, and the future of US LNG exports?
- What will the election and new government in Germany mean for the E.U. and for the U.S.?
- How can the E.U. begin to take the lead on supporting Ukraine in the future?

PPI is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization with a long history of providing educational programming on current policy issues, including transatlantic exchanges with our international partners. This trip is planned in compliance with House and Senate ethics rules.
