Mr. John Lin
Committee on Energy & Commerce
2125 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Lin:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York, New York, scheduled for May 28 to 30, 2025, sponsored by Software Education Foundation d.b.a. Software.org: the BSA Foundation ("Software.org").

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

Attachment B: Question 12 – Sponsor’s interest and role

Software.org: the BSA Foundation is an independent and nonpartisan 501(c)(3) organization.

Our organization works to help policymakers and the broader public better understand the impact that software has on our lives, our economy, and our society. As such, congressional trips such as this raises awareness and deepens understanding around emerging software technologies and their impacts to society, the economy, and the environment.

Software.org planned and organized all aspects of the trip, made lodging and travel arrangements, and corresponded with businesses involved to set up events and tours at each location. Software.org is the sole sponsor for this trip, including responsibility for covering cost of meals throughout the trip.

Hello, John –

We at Software.org: the BSA Foundation would like to invite you to participate in an AI-focused congressional staff delegation trip to New York City on Wednesday, May 28 – Friday, May 30.

The trip is themed “AI & Software Enabling Job & Economic Growth.” A bipartisan group of participants from both the House and Senate will interact with AI experts, technologists, and business leaders on the forefront of emerging technologies from top software companies including Adobe, Autodesk, IBM, Microsoft, Oracle, Salesforce, and SAP. Special dinner programs each evening will explore other aspects of AI innovation and adoption.

The group will depart Union Station the morning of Wednesday, May 28 and return on the afternoon of Friday, May 30. The trip’s programming and all travel, meals, and accommodations will be provided by Software.org in accordance with Ethics rules and guidelines.

Please let me know by reply to this email by Tuesday, April 8 if you’re able to participate. You have been specially selected for this trip, and the invitation is non-transferable. If you are unable to attend and would like to suggest another participant from your team, please provide their information without adding them to this email thread. Note: staff are not permitted to request an invitation.
