This bipartisan initiative will convene a select group of U.S. House of Representatives staff engaged in shaping critical policy areas, including artificial intelligence, advanced manufacturing, national defense, healthcare, female leadership, technology innovation, and the U.S.–Italy bilateral relationship. These staff members were chosen for their expertise, and active roles in legislative efforts that align with their portfolios. The goal is to foster deeper transatlantic collaboration, share best practices, and explore opportunities for partnership between the United States and Italy in areas of shared interest and mutual benefit. Rome is at the intersection of innovation, fashion, and global commerce—staff will gain valuable insights into the evolving landscape of global supply chains, digital commerce, and youth-oriented markets, all of which are increasingly relevant to U.S. policymaking in today’s interconnected world.

Gallerie Nazionali di Arte Antica - Palazzo Barberini, Via delle Quattro Fontane, 13, 00184 Roma RM, Italy

Overview: Michelangelo Merisi da Caravaggio was one of the most intense, rebellious, and influential artists of all time. His dramatic life mirrored his powerful art, marked by a complex relationship with women, power, and society. Today's experience offers a unique opportunity to explore Caravaggio's work through a gender-focused lens—highlighting the representation of women in his paintings, the real-life models he used, and the roles women played in his era. Attendees will engage with a rich, thought-provoking journey where art becomes a platform for dialogue on inclusion, visibility, and voice—issues that remain just as relevant today in navigating male-dominated spaces.

Question 12- GlobalWIN – Staff Delegation Trip to Rome, Italy

GlobalWIN will engage all three of its core programming pillars through a dynamic and impactful delegation trip to Rome, Italy. This bipartisan initiative will convene a select group of House staff working on critical policy areas, including artificial intelligence, advanced manufacturing, national defense, healthcare, female leadership, technology innovation, and the U.S.–Italy bilateral relationship.

In collaboration with GlobalWIN’s network of partners and allies, the program will feature a robust agenda of corporate site visits, meetings with senior women leaders in the Italian government and the U.S. Embassy, as well as cultural events that highlight Rome’s historical significance and vibrant diplomatic role.

Participants in GlobalWIN’s House Staff Delegation will engage directly with cutting-edge companies, influential female industry leaders, and top executives. These interactions will provide a platform to explore key policy challenges and foster meaningful bipartisan dialogue. The trip will promote cooperation, mutual understanding, and lasting professional relationships across party lines.

GlobalWIN will fully organize and fund all components of the trip, including travel arrangements, official meetings, speakers, and panel discussions scheduled throughout the official programming hours.

Jewish Quarter of Rome and Great Synagogue of Rome

2:30 PM

Overview: A visit and conversation about the Jewish Ghetto in Rome is a powerful reminder that the city's history is more than ancient ruins and Catholic heritage. The Jewish Quarter reveals a deeper, more layered narrative—one of resilience, memory, and coexistence. It was also a moment for reflection on the vital, often under-recognized role women play in preserving culture through adversity. In this community, women are at the heart of family life, tradition, and storytelling—quietly shaping continuity across generations. Like the world we live in today, the Quarter embodies the complexity of multiple histories living side by side.

Ms. Margaret McInnis
Office of the Honorable Marcy Kaptur
2186 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. McInnis:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Italy,<sup>1</sup> scheduled for May 27 to 31, 2025, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN).

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

<sup>1</sup> Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
