As Tax Counsel for the Ways and Means Committee I advise members on international and energy tax policy. These tax policies affect how many innovative companies structure their multinational operations and have become more intertwined with foreign affairs in the last decade as counties decide how to update tax laws to reflect the digital reality of today. Tax is also a field that is traditionally male dominated and connecting with other female leaders is helpful to grow in my own professional development.
9. Yes  No  Is the traveler aware of any registered federal lobbyists or foreign agents involved in planning, organizing, requesting, or arranging the trip?
10. For staff travelers, to be completed by your employing Member:

ADVANCED AUTHORIZATION OF EMPLOYEE TRAVEL

I hereby authorize the individual named above, an employee of the U.S. House of Representatives who works under my direct supervision, to accept expenses for the trip described in this request. I have determined that the above-described travel is in connection with my employee's official duties and that acceptance of these expenses will not create the appearance that the employee is using public office for private gain.

Ms. Elle Collins
Committee on Ways and Means
1139 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Collins:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to the United Kingdom,<sup>1</sup> scheduled for July 27 to 31, 2025, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN). We note that you are not accepting return transportation from the sponsor.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

<sup>1</sup> Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

The Congressional delegation of staffers that will be joining us are senior female staff from both Republican and Democratic Offices with wide-ranging work portfolios, matching our curated schedule of programming. Each of these staffers was chosen based on the range of issues that they work on, including issues related to tech policy, transatlantic trade, national security, infrastructure, healthcare distribution, entrepreneurship and small business investment, and other innovation-driven fields. They were also chosen as examples of women in leadership on Capitol Hill, as they are some of the highest-ranking female staff members in Congress.

10:30 AM

Location: MLN8, The Ray, 123 Farringdon Road, London, EC1R 3DA, United Kingdom

Overview: Learning more about LinkedIn, especially through leaders like Janine Chamberlin, highlights the powerful premise that women can lead at the highest levels and drive impact on a global scale. Women in such roles not only shape business strategy but also champion diversity, equity, and inclusion—ensuring broader representation and opportunity. Their success underscores the importance of adaptability, continuous learning, and embracing digital transformation, particularly for women navigating dynamic, non-linear career paths. LinkedIn both reflects and enables this shift, serving as a platform where women can grow, lead, and influence across industries worldwide.

11:15 AM Lunch Meeting: Frontline Voices: Media, Policy, and the Women Driving the Conversation

1:15 PM

Location: Portland Place and Langham Place, London

Overview: As a chief presenter at the BBC and a long-time international journalist, Sumi Somaskanda will speak candidly about the critical role women play in shaping public narratives and policy—both in government and corporate spheres. Drawing on her global reporting experience Sumi will emphasize the importance of representation, not only in the stories we tell but, in the rooms, where decisions are made. Sumi will highlight how women across sectors—whether on Capitol Hill or in corporate boardrooms—face parallel challenges in visibility, influence, and navigating institutional power structures. In UK she will underscore the value of transatlantic dialogue and solidarity, urging women leaders to champion transparency, elevate underrepresented voices, and leverage their platforms to drive meaningful change at scale.

Speaker: Sumi Somaskanda, Chief Presenter, BBC

Question 12

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sector through our programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad. Our stay in England will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide all participants a rare opportunity to grow professionally while connecting with experts and leaders outside of the U.S. GlobalWIN has organized and planned many trips domestically and internationally over the last 16 years. This trip was planned with the professional guidance of our Co-Founder and President Helen Milby, Executive Director Angeli Chawla and Senior Advisor Andrea Mietus.

15-2

GlobalWIN selected London for its strong transatlantic ties and wealth of expertise across key policy areas, including data privacy, healthcare, trade, female leadership, and tech innovation. From July 27–31, we will bring 20 bipartisan Congressional staffers for three days of intensive programming. London offers direct access to GlobalWIN allies and leaders outside the U.S., enriching participants' subject-matter knowledge and professional growth through high-impact meetings and timely insights.

Question 18- Cost of Lodging 4 Nights

Please note: GlobalWIN is extending the hotel stay for the evening of Sunday, July 27th for the Delegation. This will ensure that upon arrival in the UK early Monday morning, delegates will have immediate access to their rooms to freshen up before the official programming begins.

Given that the group will be traveling overnight in economy accommodations and adjusting to the time difference, this added night is intended to allow the Delegation some time to rest and prepare before the start of scheduled activities.
