As Communications Director for the House Budget Committee, my responsibilities include crafting messaging, managing media strategy, and advising the Chairman on how to effectively communicate complex policy issues to the public. This trip directly supports those duties by providing professional development opportunities focused on communicating conservative approaches to climate and energy policy—key topics in ongoing budget and legislative debates. The sessions on messaging research, narrative building, and stakeholder engagement will directly enhance my ability to support the Committee's work and amplify its priorities.

Answer to Question 4: Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited.

Explanation of the invites below: CCF invited Communications Directors from every member office of the Conservative Climate Caucus and relevant committees interested in clean energy and climate policy. In the case that the Communications Director was unavailable or the position wasn't filled, we extended the invite to another relevant communications member of the staff.

Answer to Question 12:

The Conservative Climate Foundation (CCF) is a not-for-profit charitable and educational organization organized, operated, and recognized as a tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code as amended. The organization's mission is to engage and inform the public and policymakers about reducing global and domestic emissions with common sense, economic and environmentally sustainable strategies and solutions based on conservative principles. CCF's Annual Communicators' Retreat brings together communications professionals in the conservative space from the U.S. House, U.S. Senate, and CCF member organizations to learn, network, and collaborate on effective climate messaging.

Mr. Evan Dixon
Committee on the Budget
204 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Dixon:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Grand Rapids, Michigan, scheduled for August 5 to 7, 2025, sponsored by Conservative Climate Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

Mark DeSaulnier
