4. This program is intended for senior Congressional Staff at offices of current Members of the United States Congress; FMC invited Chiefs of Staff who have participated in Congressional travel to the region and senior staff who have previously expressed interest in Indo-Pacific issues and – in particular, security, energy, trade, and social issues – and whose Members serve on committees relevant to the program's issue areas. Please find enclosed a list of all invitees.

12. The Congressional Study Groups are among the largest and most active parliamentary exchange programs between the U.S. Congress and our allies abroad. The Study Groups on Japan and Korea, respectively, foster mutual understanding through regular roundtables in Washington, DC throughout the year in addition to trips such as Chief of Staff Study Tours to Japan, and domestic travel programs such as this Asia Retreat. They offer senior congressional staff a unique educational forum to better understand the complex issues facing allies in the Indo-Pacific from the standpoint of security, energy policy, bilateral and multilateral trade agreements, immigration, and demographic change.

FMC's Congressional Study Group on Japan is responsible for organizing the program, arranging meetings, and inviting expert speakers to the study tour. FMC is solely responsible for all invitations to and communications with program participants, as well as the budget for the 2025 Senior Congressional Staff Retreat on Asia Seminar.

Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA awards grant monies to fund the year-round programming of The Congressional Study Group on Japan as a part of their mission of promoting understanding between the U.S. and Japan. Experts from Sasakawa USA will participate in select roundtables as panelists.

15. b. 2) Charlottesville was selected to play host to the 2025 Senior Congressional Staff Retreat on Asia Seminar for its convenient location, proximity to locally-based experts on the Indo-Pacific at institutions such as the University of Virginia, as well as landmarks and attractions which encourage Congressional staff to participate in the program.

Dear Colleague,

It is our pleasure to invite you to participate in FMC & The Congressional Study Group on Japan's upcoming colloquium on Asia for senior congressional staff, taking place in Charlottesville, Virginia from August 6-8, 2025.

For over 30 years, the Congressional Study Groups have conducted high-level, discussion-driven study tours for Members of Congress and senior Congressional staff, along with year-round programs on Capitol Hill. Bipartisan and non-advocacy, our model promotes active, substantive discussion among all principals instead of speeches or formal presentations that hinder the development of lasting working relationships.

This year, we are excited to resume our annual colloquium centering on relationships in the Indo-Pacific for a bipartisan group of senior Congressional staff. The program will provide two full days of focused panel discussions, combined with opportunities for interaction on a more personal level away from the buzz of Washington, DC. More than 50 senior Congressional staff and experts have participated in past colloquia, and panelists have represented diverse sectors, including think-tanks, Administration, business, the diplomatic community, and media.

Topics that will be discussed include:

- Asian domestic politics and challenges (Japan, Korean Peninsula, China)
- Regional security (multilateral and bilateral defense cooperation, North Korea, Taiwan)
- Economic Issues (Trade, energy, supply chains, telecommunications & critical technologies)
- Future of U.S. engagement in Asia

All lodging and scheduled meal costs will be paid for by FMC, a congressionally-chartered, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, with the support of the Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA. This program constitutes privately-sponsored travel and will be submitted to the Ethics Committee for approval. This invitation is non-transferrable, and participation is available on a first-come, first-served basis for a diverse, bipartisan group.

We look forward to hearing from you, and we hope you will be able to join us in Charlottesville.

Best,

Sabine Schleidt

Mr. Cesar Gonzalez
Office of the Honorable Mario Diaz-Balart
374 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Gonzalez:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Charlottesville, Virginia, scheduled for August 6 to 8, 2025, sponsored by Former Members of Congress and Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman
