12: The Partnership for Participatory International Policy (P-PIP) is a national organization with a mission focused on facilitating meaningful interactions between elected officials, their staff, and individuals directly affected by US policies and practices. Our core commitment lies in supporting international grassroots delegations, allowing policymakers to engage directly with those impacted; our goal is fostering informed policy-making and a greater understanding of the historical and current real-world implications of US policies. P-PIP supported the logistical planning for the trip and invited participants for the delegation, and P-PIP's director and staff will travel on the delegation. P-PIP will provide the funding for Congressional travel by using general operating funds.

The Center for Economic and Policy Research (CEPR) is a national organization based in Washington D.C. CEPR promotes democratic debate on issues that affect people's lives, in the US and other parts of the world. Through rigorous, independent research and analysis CEPR strives to provide the general public and policymakers with the tools to better understand the problems and choices that they face. CEPR is committed to presenting issues in an accurate and understandable manner, so that the public is better prepared to choose among various policy options. CEPR provided meeting planning support for the trip and helped in inviting participants for the delegation. Three CEPR staff will be attending the delegation. CEPR did not provide any funding for Congressional travel.

15(b)2: The objective of the delegation is to hear directly from Mexicans about the impacts of US policies on migration, gun violence, and trade. The specific locations and meetings were chosen based on where Mexican organizations are located and where P-PIP can ensure the safety of the delegates.

Ms. Naomi Lake
Office of the Honorable Jesus G. "Chuy" Garcia
1519 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Lake:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Mexico,[1] scheduled for July 29 to August 3, 2025, sponsored by Partnership for Participatory International Policy and Center for Economic and Policy Research. We note that this trip includes two days at your personal expense.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

[1] Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at https://step.state.gov.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
