JEFFREY M. TALPINS
FOUNDATION

N7 Initiative Congressional Education Mission

Hosted by the Atlantic Council

August 16-22, 2025

Mission goals: The goal of this trip is to educate and inform Congressional Staff with portfolios covering national security and the Abraham Accords on emerging developments within the Abraham Accords and how they relate to U.S. foreign policy, trade, and defense goals. The trip includes stops to meet with the senior officials in current Abraham Accords countries who can discuss the status of the Abraham Accords, the prospects for expanding and strengthening the Abraham Accords, and the impacts of current dynamics in the Middle East on U.S. and partner cooperation related to the Abraham Accords. The Atlantic Council will demonstrate through engagements with both U.S. officials based in the region and foreign government officials how the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords will transform U.S. policy and opportunities within the Middle East in the near future.

Relevance to official duties: The subject matter of the trip is important to Staffers supporting Members of Congress on the Armed Services, Homeland Security, Intelligence, Foreign Affairs, Ways and Means, Appropriations, and Financial Services Committees as they are likely to encounter future legislation concerning the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords.

Location: The purpose of travel to Bahrain, the United Arab Emirates, and Israel is to meet with regional leaders and U.S. officials who are working to strengthen the Abraham Accords.

Rationale: H.E. Ambassador Khaled Yousef Al-Jalahma, Undersecretary for Political Affairs from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, provided a briefing to the staffers on the Kingdom's current diplomatic relations with the United States and developments on supporting the expansion of regional relations with Israel. The delegation engaged on diplomatic topics such as intra-gulf relations, updates to the Bahrain-Israel Free Trade Agreement negotiations, and the status of the Abraham Accords. It is relevant to the trip's mission as the Staffers are likely to encounter legislation relating to U.S.-Bahrain ties, regional trade and investment developments, and the Abraham Accords.

Participants: H.E. Ambassador Khaled Yousef Al-Jalahma (Undersecretary for Political Affairs), Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Manya-Jean Gitter, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Location: Ministry of Foreign Affairs

14:30 – 14:50Transportation by bus to Qudaibiya Palace14:50 – 16:10*Meeting with the Office of the Prime Minister

Rationale: Yara Faraj, Head of the Prime Minister's Office, shared the policies of the Kingdom of Bahrain across diplomatic, defense, trade, and investment nexuses. Members and staff will engage with H.R.H.'s team on the importance of the Abraham Accords across multiple nexuses and on the hostilities between Iran and Israel and how it affects regional normalization. It is relevant to the trip's mission as the Staffers are likely to encounter legislation relating to U.S.- Bahrain ties and regional developments. The Office of the Prime Minister, Crown Prince, H.R.H. Prince Salman bin Hamad Al Khalifa, can authoritatively speak to Bahraini positions on the Bahrain-U.S. relationship.

Participants: Yara Faraj (Head of the Prime Minister's Office), Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Manya-Jean Gitter, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Rationale: Senior officials from the UAE Ministry of Foreign Affairs, including H.E. Dr. Alsaghira Alahbab (Head of the Americas Department), Mr. Mohamed Almiddfa (Deputy of the Policy Planning Department), and Mrs. Afra Alhameli (Director of the Strategic Communication Department), provided a briefing to congressional staff on the UAE's diplomatic priorities and regional engagements. The discussion covered a wide range of issues, including Sudan, the Russia-Ukraine conflict, the Israel-Gaza war, and Syria, as well as the UAE's support for the expansion of the Abraham Accords and its broader interfaith and diplomatic efforts. This was relevant to the trip's mission, as Members were likely to encounter legislation and policy debates relating to U.S.-UAE relations, regional conflicts, and the Abraham Accords.

Participants: HE Dr. Alsaghira Alahbab (Head of the Americas Department), Mr. Mohamed Almiddfa (Deputy of Policy Planning Department), Mrs. Afra Alhameli (Director of Strategic Communication Department), Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Manya-Jean Gitter, Jose Juan Villalvazo, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

18:45 – 20:35

Guided Tour of the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque

Rationale: The delegation visited the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque, one of the world's largest mosques and a landmark of the United Arab Emirates' cultural and religious identity. Beyond its architectural significance, the mosque embodies the UAE's emphasis on interfaith dialogue, tolerance, and coexistence, values that underpin its support for the Abraham Accords and broader regional diplomacy. The visit offered congressional staff an opportunity to better understand how the UAE presents its commitment to religious pluralism and cultural heritage, both domestically and in its international engagement.

Participants: Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Many-Jean Gitter, Jose Juan Villalvazo, Gershom Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Dinner and debrief with N7 Staff and with Ghaida Rinawie Zoabi

Rationale: The delegation joined N7 staff and Ghaida Rinawie Zoabi, former Member of the Knesset and a leading advocate for Arab-Israeli integration and coexistence, for dinner and discussion. The conversation helped set the scene for the next stop in Israel by providing valuable context on Arab citizens' role in Israeli society, Zoabi's perspective on the Abraham Accords, and the broader opportunities and challenges of advancing regional integration. This was relevant to the trip's mission, as it offered both strategic framing for the delegation's time in Israel and insights from a local leader with deep experience in politics and civil society.

Meeting with Officials from National Security Council

Rationale: Uri Resnik, Senior Director for Foreign Policy at Israel's National Security Council, provided a briefing to Congressional staff on Israel's diplomatic and security priorities in the aftermath of October 7. The discussion covered regional dynamics, including Lebanon, Syria, Gaza, Iran, and Yemen, and how Israel is approaching both immediate threats and long-term strategic objectives. The delegation had the opportunity to engage on broader U.S.-Israel coordination as well as the implications for advancing the Abraham Accords. This meeting was directly relevant to the trip's mission, as Members are likely to encounter legislation relating to U.S.-Israel ties, regional security, and Middle East diplomacy.

Participants: Uri Resnik (Senior Director for Foreign Policy, NSC, Prime Minister's Office), Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Manya-Jean Gitter, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Roland Hernandez, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Meeting with deceased hostage Hersh Goldberg-Polin's parents

Rationale: The delegation met with the parents of Hersh Goldberg-Polin, a U.S. citizen who died while hostage in Gaza following the October 7 attacks. The discussion provided a deeply personal perspective on the ongoing hostage crisis and underscored the urgent humanitarian, diplomatic, and security challenges it presents. Hearing directly from the family highlighted the stakes of U.S. engagement on hostage recovery, support for American citizens abroad, and broader efforts to address the conflict with Hamas. This meeting was directly relevant to the trip's mission, as Members are likely to encounter legislation concerning U.S. citizens held abroad, humanitarian assistance, and U.S. policy toward Israel and the region.

Participants: Rachel Goldberg-Polin, Jon Polin, Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Manya-Jean Gitter, Andrew Bohn, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Reid Dagul, Jesse von Stein, Roland Hernandez, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Guided Tour of Kfar Azza and Nova Festival Site with IDF Diplomacy

Rationale: IDF Diplomacy officials led a tour and briefing at Kfar Azza and the Nova Festival Site, both of which were targeted during the October 7 attacks and where community members remain hostage. The visit gave congressional staff a deeper understanding of how Israel commemorates national trauma, the societal impact of the conflict with Hamas, and the country's evolving security posture. This experience provided critical context for understanding regional dynamics and was directly relevant to the trip's mission, as staff are likely to engage in legislation related to U.S.-Israel relations and the advancement of the Abraham Accords.

Meeting with representative of the Yesh Atid Party

Rationale: The delegation met with Shelly Tal Meron, a representative of the Israeli opposition party Yesh Atid, to discuss Israel's domestic political landscape and the implications for U.S.-Israel relations. The conversation provided insight into how the opposition views the government's handling of security challenges, the ongoing conflict with Hamas, and prospects for advancing regional integration under the Abraham Accords. Engaging with the opposition offered congressional staff a fuller picture of Israel's political dynamics and was directly relevant to the trip's mission, as Members are likely to encounter legislation related to U.S.-Israel ties, democratic governance, and regional security.

Participants: MK Shelly Tal Meron (Member of Knesset, Yesh Atid Party), Callahan Stoub, Samantha Schifrin, Marcos Ibarra, Arden Hooper, Valerie Foy, Gil Thompson, Luis Reyes, John Bleed, Jesse von Stein, Manya-Jean Gitter, Jose Juan Villalvazo, Gershon Sacks, Emily Milliken, Cassidy McGoldrick

Andrew Bohn, National Security Advisor
United States House of Representatives
Washington, District of Columbia

July 3, 2025

Dear Mr. Andrew Bohn,

On behalf of the N7 Initiative, I am delighted to invite you to participate in the upcoming N7 Abraham Accords Congressional Education Mission.

The education mission will take place between August 16th and August 23rd, with expected travel to Bahrain, followed by the United Arab Emirates, and then Israel.

The purpose of the trip is to engage with strategic foreign leaders to demonstrate continued U.S. and Congressional interest in the Middle East, Middle East integration, and Arab-Israeli normalization. The mission will explore the potential for expanding the Abraham Accords, efforts by existing Abraham Accords partners to deepen the accords, and the obstacles countries face in developing regional ties with Israel. Through meetings with government leaders, military leaders, business leaders, and faith leaders, participants will gain valuable insights into the challenges and opportunities for regional integration. Further information on this Congressional Education mission, including a tentative itinerary, is forthcoming.

The N7 Initiative will cover all costs and expenses associated with the trip for you. Our team will follow up with you to share further details. Should you have questions in the interim, please reach out to Allison Minor, N7 Director, at +1-573-268-3177 or at aminor@atlanticcouncil.org. We greatly value your participation and hope that you can join us for this important trip.

N7 Initiative Congressional Education Mission

August 16-22, 2025

Mission goals: The goal of this trip is to educate and inform Congressional Staff with portfolios covering national security and the Abraham Accords on emerging developments within the Abraham Accords and how they relate to U.S. foreign policy, trade, and defense goals. The trip includes stops to meet with the senior officials in current Abraham Accords countries who can discuss the status of the Abraham Accords, the prospects for expanding and strengthening the Abraham Accords, and the impacts of current dynamics in the Middle East on U.S. and partner cooperation related to the Abraham Accords. The Atlantic Council will demonstrate through engagements with both U.S. officials based in the region and foreign government officials how the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords will transform U.S. policy and opportunities within the Middle East in the near future.

Relevance to official duties: The subject matter of the trip is important to Staffers supporting Members of Congress on the Armed Services, Homeland Security, Intelligence, Foreign Affairs, Ways and Means, Appropriations, and Financial Services Committees as they are likely to encounter future legislation concerning the expansion and deepening of the Abraham Accords.

Location: The purpose of travel to Bahrain, the United Arab Emirates, and Israel is to meet with regional leaders and U.S. officials who are working to strengthen the Abraham Accords.

Mr. Andrew Bohn
Office of the Honorable Zachary Nunn
1410 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Bohn:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Bahrain, United Arab Emirates, and Israel,¹ scheduled for August 16 to 22, 2025, sponsored by Atlantic Council of the United States, Inc.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
