In addition to my selection for the Atlantic Council's U.S.-Colombia Fellowship, I am the primary foreign policy and national security advisor to a Member of the Appropriations Committee who is focused on U.S.-Latin America relations. In this role, I am responsible for assessing the effectiveness of U.S. assistance to Colombia and the extent to which support for Colombia's government, military, law enforcement, and civil society are promoting U.S. interests. My boss also has a significant Colombian-American diaspora community in her district, and part of my role is engaging this community and ensuring that my boss is informed on the dynamic political, security, and economic situation in Colombia. I also cover immigration policy for the Congresswoman, and Colombia has historically been a country of origin for many migrants to the U.S. as well as a transit country for Venezuelan immigrants. Finally, I cover international trade and commerce for the Congresswoman, and her district includes Port Everglades, with which Colombia is one of the largest trading partners.

9. Yes  No  Is the traveler aware of any registered federal lobbyists or foreign agents involved in planning, organizing, requesting, or arranging the trip?

10. For staff travelers, to be completed by your employing Member:

ADVANCED AUTHORIZATION OF EMPLOYEE TRAVEL

I hereby authorize the individual named above, an employee of the U.S. House of Representatives who works under my direct supervision, to accept expenses for the trip described in this request. I have determined that the above-described travel is in connection with my employee's official duties and that acceptance of these expenses will not create the appearance that the employee is using public office for private gain.

Appendix to Max Price Traveler Form, Question 8

In addition to my selection for the Atlantic Council's U.S.-Colombia Fellowship, I am the primary foreign policy and national security advisor to a Member of the Appropriations Committee who is a Congressional leader on U.S.-Latin America relations. In this role, I am responsible for conducting oversight of the effectiveness of U.S. assistance to Colombia and the reporting to my boss on the extent to which support for Colombia's government, military, law enforcement, and civil society are promoting U.S. interests. My boss also has a significant Colombian-American diaspora community in her district, and part of my role is engaging this community and ensuring that my boss is informed on the dynamic political, security, and economic situation in Colombia. I also cover immigration policy for the Congresswoman, and Colombia has historically been a country of origin for many migrants to the U.S. as well as a transit country for Venezuelan immigrants. Finally, I cover international trade and commerce for the Congresswoman, and her district includes Port Everglades, with which Colombia is one of the largest trading partners. Trade with Colombia creates tens of thousands of jobs in the district and across South Florida more broadly. I have supported the development of legislation, amendments, and letters for my boss across each of these issue sets.
