Question 12:

With Africa facing complex security, economic, and development challenges amid growing geopolitical competition, this convening continues AICP's mission of helping lawmakers and their staff engage thoughtfully with the most pressing issues of our time. AICP organized and conducted the conference and selected and invited the attendees. The foundation listed in 3C, The Eleanor Crook Foundation, did not play a role in organizing or conducting the conference. The foundation provided grant funding for the program.

Question 13 (c):

We are using a charter flight for the trip to the Dadaab Refugee Camp as there are no commercial flights to the camp and charter is the only way to visit the Dadaab refugee camp.

We are also utilizing a charter flight for our trip to the Masai Mara since the location is remote and hard to reach (a specific airstrip). Charter is necessary due to limited commercial flights, twice a day at inopportune times for our schedule and unreliability of scheduled flights servicing the route (e.g. last-minute stops added and changes to aircraft size resulting in over-booking).

The location was chosen as a backdrop to examine a range of issues with significant policy implications for both the United States and Africa. Through a mix of field visits to health, agriculture, and other program sites, as well as expert-led fireside chats and roundtable discussions, participants will delve into the security, economic, and development challenges facing Africa—and the ways in which the United States is engaging in response. Discussions will highlight threats to U.S. national security across the continent, alongside the growing influence of China and Russia. The agenda will also cover key development areas such as public health, food security and malnutrition. The visit to the Masai Mara will cover the issues of wildlife trafficking and conservation. Attendees will have the chance to interact with local Kenyans and reflect on the evolving future of U.S.-Africa relations.

The facilit(ies) have required technology, meeting space, and are able to provide food with Western standard food handling and preparation practices. Security is a key factor as well.

Dadaab Refugee Camp, located in eastern Kenya near the border with Somalia, was established in 1992 as a temporary location for Somalis fleeing from civil war. Over the years, famine and drought have forced growing numbers of Somalis to seek housing in Dadaab. Today, the camp is the world's largest, housing over 432,000 refugees and asylum seekers, supporting children and families from primarily Somalia.

The camp is managed by the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) with food support provided through the U.N.'s World Food Programme (WFP), water and sanitation by CARE, and health care by the Kenya Red Cross Society. The United States, in the past, has been a major contributor to UNHCR and WFP, providing over $800 million in assistance to refugees in Kenya, including Dadaab. More recently, however, American commitments to both organizations have declined significantly.

Maa Trust and Maa Beadwork Project

Meeting with and tour led by Daniel Sophia, CEO of the Maasai Mara Wildlife Conservancies Association

The Maa Trust is a non-profit organisation working with community-owned conservancies in the Masai Mara, Kenya. Its mission is to increase the benefits of wildlife and conservation to Masai families so that they value and contribute to the protection of wild animals on their land. The Maa Trust empowers local people by promoting small business startups & micro finance schemes, enabling them to make their own money and to invest in their family's development. Their members identify their needs and wish lists of items, and The Maa Trust helps them to save up for and attain these. Despite a severe lack of education for girl children in previous years, the female beadwork and honey projects are now providing a way for these women to invest in clean drinking water for their homes, a solar power alternative firewood, and the ability to send more of their children to school.

Maa Beadwork is a social enterprise established by The Maa Trust as a sustainable alternative livelihood to generate income for Masai women and their families. Beading is a tribal art and talent of Masai women, who have been famed for their adornment for centuries.

4:00 PM: Check in at Camp

4:30 - 7:00 PM: Afternoon field Drive briefing with Daniel Sophia, CEO of the Masai Mara Wildlife Conservancies Association (MMWCA)

Daniel Sophia will brief the delegation on the community conservancy model in the Masai Mara, including its history, unique ownership and land-use rights, and the direct support they have received from the US government. This discussion will further illustrate how the conservancy model generates sustainable incomes for individual landowners. The Masai Mara Wildlife Conservancies Association is a membership organization of the Mara Conservancies established in 2013. They have a mandate from landowners and tourism parties to play an overarching coordination role for Greater Mara Ecosystem stakeholders. Currently, there are 24 conservancies at different stages of development, covering about 450,000 acres. The member conservancies bring together over 15,000 landowners who annually receive approximately 7.5 million paid as lease fees.

8:00 – 9:30 PM: Working Dinner with Dr Mohanjeet Brar (PhD) Managing Director - Gamewatchers & Porini Camps

Dr. Brar will brief the delegation on the role of sustainable tourism in supporting conservation. The delegation will gain a better understanding of the ecotourism models in Kenya and the economic opportunities presented for local communities.

Mohanjeet started his career as the Managing Director of Gamewatchers Safaris & Porini Camps in 2005. In 2019, he became a Trustee of the Wildlife Habitat Trust and a Board Member of the Kenya Tourism Board. Mohanjeet also served as a Board Member of the Masai Mara Wildlife Conservancies Association from 2013 to 2021.

Overnight in Masai Mara

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 26:

6:30 - 9:00 AM: Field drive briefing to observe predator activity and discuss human-wildlife conflict

Conservancy representatives will guide participants to track lion pride movements, discussing, en route, the important role lions and other predators play in the ecosystem as well as the Masai's historical relationship with lions and present threats of human-wildlife conflict. This discussion will provide participants with key background information and observations on how predators, in particular, support the overall health of the ecosystem, human-wildlife conflict, traditional practices of indigenous groups, and the challenges these create for local buy-in to ecotourism as a development solution.

9:00 – 9:45 AM: Breakfast with Niels Mogensen, Senior Program Scientist at the Mara Predator Hub

The Mara Predator Hub leads research on the Mara's top predators to help community members and landowners understand and appreciate the role of predators in the ecosystem, ensure that key stakeholders in the Greater Mara Ecosystem consistently utilise sound scientific information to inform conservation strategies, and support stable, healthy predator populations in the Greater Mara Ecosystem by providing scientific evidence for conservation action.

10:30 AM: Return to Camp to pack

12 – 1:30 PM: Working Lunch with Dr. John Sankok, CEO of Community Health Partners (CHP)

Dr. Sankok will brief the delegation on CHP's health and community development programs. The delegation will learn how these programs work in tandem with the conservancy model to support human development in the communities. Community Health Partners has been on the forefront of healthcare since 1980, and played an especially big role during the COVID-19 pandemic. They work on two fronts: primary health care services and community development initiatives. Their overall strategic plan is to contribute to the delivery of quality, accessible, and affordable health services.

Dear Mr. Mocete:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Kenya,¹ scheduled for September 21 to 27, 2025, sponsored by Aspen Institute, Inc. and Eleanor Crook Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $480] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

Patrick Mocete
Chief of Staff

Representative Young Kim
Washington, DC 20515-0306

Dear Patrick,

I would like to invite you to our bipartisan, bicameral congressional senior staff conference on U.S. Foreign Policy in Africa: Interests, Opportunities, and Challenges in Nairobi and Maasai Mara, Kenya from September 21-27, 2025, including travel dates. Please get back to us with your interest to attend the conference by COB Wednesday, June 25, 2025. These conference spots fill up quickly, so please RSVP as soon as possible. This invitation does not guarantee your participation in the conference.

This educational conference will examine a range of pressing issues with significant policy implications for both the United States and Africa. Through a mix of field visits to health, agriculture, and other program sites, as well as expert-led fireside chats and roundtable discussions, participants will delve into the security, economic, and development challenges facing Africa—and the ways in which the United States is engaging in response. Discussions will highlight threats to U.S. national security across the continent, alongside the growing influence of China and Russia. The agenda will also cover key development areas such as public health, food security and malnutrition, and the issues of wildlife trafficking and conservation. Attendees will have the chance to interact with local Kenyans and reflect on the evolving future of U.S.-Africa relations.

Conference attendance is by invitation only. No outside observers, no lobbyists, and no media are allowed to participate. All conference sessions and site visits are off-the-record. No foreign governments are accepted to fund the Aspen Institute Congressional Program. As required by the Senate and House ethics rules, we will provide congressional participants with ethics private sponsor forms completed and signed.

Travel expenses, including airfare, meals, and lodging will be paid for by the Aspen Institute; no expenses for entertainment or recreation are paid for in compliance with ethics rules.

The Congressional Program is part of the Aspen Institute, Inc. a nonprofit organization founded in 1949. The Congressional Program was created to promote leadership on public policy by bringing legislators and their staff together from both political parties with internationally renowned scholars for high level discussions and analysis. Since our program's inception, more than 598 members of Congress have participated in our 160 domestic and international conferences.

We hope you can join us for this important conference.

Sincerely,

Charlie Dent
