UNF Learning Trip to UN Headquarters (December 4-5, 2025)
Addendum to Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form

Due to a miscommunication with the hotel, the actual lodging rate was $599 per night rather than the anticipated $342 GSA per diem rate. Although the selected hotel has honored the government rate for all previous UN Foundation learning trips, it was unable to do so this time because of uniquely high seasonal demand. Unfortunately, this change was not communicated to management in advance, resulting in the unexpected increase in cost.

COMMITTEE ON ETHICS

PRIMARY TRIP SPONSOR FORM

This form should be completed by private entities offering to provide travel or reimbursement for travel to House Members, officers, or employees under House Rule 25, clause 5. A completed copy of the form (and any attachments) should be provided to each invited House Member, officer, or employee, who will then forward it to the Committee together with a Traveler Form at least 30 days before the start date of the trip. The trip sponsor should NOT submit the form directly to the Committee. The Committee's website (ethics.house.gov) provides detailed instructions for filling out the form. Subject: Invitation: Learning Trip to United Nations Headquarters, December 4–5, 2025

Dear Katie,

On behalf of the United Nations Foundation and the United Nations Association of the United States of America, I would like to extend an invitation for you to participate in a learning trip to United Nations Headquarters in New York on Thursday, December 4 – Friday, December 5, 2025.

In case you are unfamiliar, the UN Foundation is a public charity that links the UN's work with others around the world, mobilizing the energy and expertise of policymakers, businesses, and NGOs to help the UN tackle global challenges. As part of our mission, we regularly organize learning trips to UN Headquarters for U.S. policymakers, offering an opportunity to learn about the UN firsthand and understand how smart U.S. investments in the UN system make America safer, stronger, and more prosperous.

This upcoming trip will provide a high-level overview on the UN's work across a number of critical issues, including UN reform, humanitarian assistance, peacekeeping, and global health. The delegation will meet with UN leaders and, pending confirmation, the U.S. Mission to the UN.

The basic format of the trip is as follows: the delegation will take Amtrak to New York late Thursday afternoon. There will be a working dinner that evening. On Friday, we will participate in a series of meetings at UN Headquarters, where we will be briefed by senior officials from an assortment of UN agencies. We will then close the day with a working lunch, after which you will depart for Washington on an afternoon train.

The UN Foundation will arrange all transportation and accommodations, including one night's hotel stay, and ensure they comply with all House/Senate ethics regulations. If you interested in participating, please let us know by FRIDAY, OCTOBER 31. We hope you will take this opportunity to learn more about the UN's work and look forward to your reply.

Warm regards,

Dear Ms. Wallach:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York, New York, scheduled for December 4 to 5, 2025, sponsored by United Nations Foundation.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $480 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
