GlobalWIN #4

To the start of 2026, GlobalWIN will host a two-day program in New York City on March 30–31, convening 10–15 senior female congressional staff members from both Republican and Democratic offices in the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives. This two-day trip will feature a curated series of meetings and site visits focused on key issues at the intersection of financial regulation, technological innovation, AI, and workforce development. The New York program is designed to integrate all tiers of GlobalWIN’s leadership and professional development programming, providing participants with a unique opportunity to engage directly with industry thought leaders and explore emerging trends shaping the innovation-driven economy.

Through this bipartisan convening, GlobalWIN will bring together a distinguished cohort of senior women staffers—professionals with diverse, high-impact portfolios who play a critical role in advancing policy priorities and fostering innovation across sectors.

GlobalWIN highlights the critical role of women in innovation through robust, year-round programming. Each year, GlobalWIN hosts more than 50 in-person and virtual panels, salon dinners, workshops, receptions, and delegations centered around three core pillars: Innovation Events, Career Development, and Global Partnership Building.

Through its upcoming delegation to New York, NY, GlobalWIN will highlight all three programming pillars by convening a bipartisan group of Senate and House staff working on workforce development, financial services, and technology innovation policy. During the two days of programming, participants will engage in roundtables, expert panels, and industry briefings focused on the policy implications of rapidly evolving technology and innovation.

The delegation will meet with companies at the forefront of innovation, female industry leaders, and senior executives while fostering bipartisan collaboration, cross-sector relationship building, and meaningful policy dialogue.

GlobalWIN is organizing and financially supporting all aspects of the delegation, including travel logistics, programming, meetings, speakers, and panel discussions.

Ms. Jude Al-Hmoud
Office of the Honorable Ashley Hinson
2458 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Al-Hmoud:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York, New York, scheduled for March 30 to 31, 2026, sponsored by the Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN).

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
