Dear Reggie,

On behalf of the Progressive Policy Institute (PPI), We'd like to invite you on a staff delegation trip to London, Belfast, and Dublin from April 6 to April 11, 2026.

For years, PPI has hosted congressional delegation trips with Members of Congress and staff for meetings with our transatlantic allies and international partners. This high-level trip will feature a select group of Chiefs of Staff working for Members of the House and Senate, as well as select Governor offices, who are committed to advancing innovative policies and focused on pragmatic solutions for the American public.

Our trip will cover a wide range of topics. In London, we will meet with Members of Parliament, key policy staff, and learn about the policy agenda for the UK Labour government. In Belfast, we will meet with top Northern Irish government officials and examine the entrenched divisions and political instability which still exist a quarter century after the Good Friday Agreement. Finally, in Dublin, we will take a closer look at economic growth in the private sector and explore how the Irish capital has become an innovation hub for all of Europe.

Some of the key topics and themes that we will focus on include:

- UK Labour's policy positions at the "center ground" of British politics
- Trade policy matters in Britain, Ireland, and the EU
- New ideas in technology and innovation in the European private sector

PPI is a non-profit 501 (c) (3) organization with the mission of providing educational programming on current policy issues. As such, this trip will comply with House and Senate ethics rules. PPI was part of the founding and push for the "Third Way" movement in the 1990s and has continued this work since then by maintaining relationships in Europe and producing informative and thought provoking transatlantic missions and reports.

I hope that you will be able to join us in what promises to be an insightful and educational trip to London, Belfast, and Dublin.

Space is limited; please contact Stuart Malec at 202-525-3926 and smalec@ppionline.org or Jolie Libert at 718-644-1762 and jlibert@ppionline.org if you have questions or require further information.

Mr. Reginald Harris
Office of the Honorable Greg Landsman
2244 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Ireland and the United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for April 6 to 11, 2026, sponsored by the Third Way Foundation, Inc.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman
