US-Ireland
Partnership
for Growth

Question # 4

Below is the list of the delegation invited to attend the US-Ireland Partnership for Growth third annual Staff Delegation trip. The individuals listed below were offered an opportunity to participate due to the consistent theme throughout the programming. They were selected because they represent members who engage with (and in their own work they cover) key issues important to the US-Irish Business economic relationship and sit on key committees impacting the same- Friends of Ireland Caucus, Ways & Means, Foreign Affairs, Agriculture and Budget). This is in line with the Partnership's ethos of furthering economic opportunity on both sides of the Atlantic and we are pleased to have such a good representation of a bipartisan delegation.

Celebration of Economic Progress & Potential- Ireland & The US
Dinner with Former Taoiseach Enda Kenny

Ireland today is recognized as one of the world's strongest economies, boasting high GDP per capita, near full employment, and a crucial trading partnership with the United States. This prosperity was hard-won, following a period of severe economic crisis. This dinner celebrates the enduring economic prosperity between the US and Ireland, shining a light on the factors driving the Irish economy forward. Our Guest of Honor is former Taoiseach Enda Kenny. He was Taoiseach of Ireland from 2011–2017, guiding the country out of the financial crisis by working with the European Union and International Monetary Fund, restoring economic growth and stability. His tenure also saw major social reforms and early leadership on Brexit. Participants will hear about the present economic landscape and the key catalysts that shifted the momentum of the Irish economy, something which remains a core part of Enda Kenny's legacy.

Meta: Ireland Executive Briefing: Technology, Regulation, and Wearables

U.S. House staff will be welcomed by Anne O'Leary, who will provide an overview of Meta's presence, operations, and investment in Ireland. The delegation will then hear from Dualta O Broin, who will discuss key public policy issues affecting the technology sector, including the Digital Services Tax and its implications for companies operating in Ireland and across the European Union. The session will conclude with an interactive demonstration of Meta's latest wearable technology, providing attendees with an opportunity to experience and test the new Meta Ray-Ban smart glasses firsthand.

This meeting will offer valuable insights into the intersection of innovation, emerging technologies, and digital policy in Europe.

Ethics Question #12

The U.S.-Ireland Partnership for Growth is a non-profit organization dedicated to strengthening economic engagement between the United States and Ireland. Its interest in this trip aligns with its mission to promote bilateral trade, investment, and policy dialogue, and to deepen understanding of the U.S.-Ireland economic relationship, valued at over $800 billion.

The Partnership facilitates engagement between multinational businesses operating in both countries and government leaders, with a focus on reducing barriers to growth and expanding shared economic opportunity. It also recognizes Ireland as a key U.S. economic partner and gateway to the European Union.

For this trip, the Partnership has organized and planned the program, including coordinating meetings and educational roundtables with Irish business and political leaders. These activities are intended to provide Congressional staff with insight into the economic, regulatory, and policy factors shaping the bilateral relationship.

The trip is being conducted under the guidance of Executive Director Ben English and Senior Advisor Andrea Mietus, who have overseen program development and logistics.

Ethics Question #15-2

Dublin was selected as the location for this trip due to its central role in U.S.-Ireland economic and political engagement. As Ireland's capital and primary economic hub, Dublin is home to key government institutions, multinational corporations, and industry leaders that are central to the bilateral relationship.

The U.S.-Ireland Partnership for Growth, established to facilitate sustained engagement between U.S. and Irish business and policy leaders, identified Dublin as the most appropriate location to provide Congressional staff with direct access to senior policymakers and business stakeholders. This setting enables meaningful dialogue on trade, investment, and regulatory issues affecting both economies.

The trip is designed to provide a small, bipartisan group of Congressional staff with opportunities to engage in curated discussions and round tables with Irish officials and private sector leaders. These engagements aim to deepen understanding of the economic ties between the United States and Ireland and to explore opportunities to support continued shared growth and prosperity.

Mr. Gianluca Nigro
Office of the Honorable Brendan F. Boyle
1502 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Nigro:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Ireland,¹ scheduled for June 15 to 19, 2026, sponsored by US-Ireland Partnership for Growth.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman
