Addendum B: Question 12

IJM

IJM has had a presence in Peru for 3 years, working to combat violence against women and children through partnerships with the Peruvian National Police, the Judiciary, and the Ministry of Women. IJM has launched initiatives that train police officers, amplified the voices of survivors and empowered community leaders to guide victims of violence through the legal process. IJM has an interest in this trip due to the focus on child protection and justice system strengthening, which are core aspects of IJM's work globally.

Congressional Learning Tour to Peru

July 6-11, 2026

Trip Goals: The goal of his trip is to educate staff with members on the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the House Appropriations Committee about how U.S. government and private investments are addressing key development challenges to improve the safety and wellbeing of vulnerable populations in Peru. The trip will introduce participants to World Vision and International Justice Mission (IJM) programs focused on preventing and addressing violence against women and children, as well as promoting economic development for vulnerable populations. The trip will include meetings with the U.S. Embassy personnel, Peruvian government officials, program implementers, and beneficiaries. IJM and World Vision will demonstrate how faith-based organizations work to protect and empower individuals through innovative development solutions.

Relevance to Official Duties: The subject matter of the trip is important to Members and staff of the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the House Appropriations Committee as they consider future legislation and appropriations concerning the U.S. government's role in overseas development assistance.

Location: The trip will include travel to and within Lima and Iquitos, Peru.

9:00-10:30 AM

Working Breakfast, led by World Vision Peru staff

World Vision staff will present on the context of child well-being in the Amazon region of Peru as well as give an overview of World Vision's work in the region. World Vision staff will discuss the needs and vulnerabilities of children in the Amazon region. This will be a time where staff can hear about the footprint of World Vision and understand the work of faith-based organizations in promoting thriving children and families.

Knowledge of these needs and the work organizations like World Vision do will help House staff gain a better understanding of the overlapping vulnerabilities of children both in Peru and across Latin America as they think about future opportunities for legislation and funding.

Presenters: WV Peru staff

Participants: House staff, IJM and World Vision staff

Location: Double Tree by Hilton Hotel Iquitos (Jr. Napo 258, Iquitos, 16001, Peru)

The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

Transport by van to Peri-Urban community in Punchana

11:00 AM – 12:30 PM

Meeting with local community leaders in Punchana about clean water access

Participants will have the opportunity to talk to community leaders in the Punchana district to discuss the lack of safe/clean water in the Amazon region and how World Vision and other U.S.-based NGOs are building solutions to increase access to safe/clean water for more than 800 families.

Access to clean water globally has been a priority of the U.S. government for decades. This will allow House staff to understand the water crisis in areas such as the Amazon region and hear about community-led solutions that can be used to inform them in their work on foreign affairs and appropriations issues related to clean water access.

Participants: Community leaders in Punchana, House staff, IJM and World Vision staff

Location: Frank Saboya Community (Google maps link given remote nature of visit)

| 8:30-10:00 AM | Visit to CDC Area of Bellavista Nanay Health Center     |

In this visit, participants will have the opportunity to understand the high concentration of malaria and other diseases in the area. Specifically, it will focus on how the U.S. Centers for Disease Control (CDC) works in collaboration with World Vision on the national, local, and regional levels, to support the prevention and response efforts for these and other tropical diseases.

This visit will have a focus on global health priorities and the work of the CDC abroad, which will help inform staff on the type of work the CDC does to prevent disease as they work on foreign affairs and appropriations.

Participants: Health Center staff, House staff, IJM and World Vision staff

Location: CDC Area of Bellavista Nanay Health Center (Av. La Marina 2451, Iquitos 16003, Peru)

| 11:30 AM-1:00 PM | Visit to Primary Health Care Project |
|------------------|---------------------------------------------|

Participants will learn about World Vision's work in training health care workers to increase resilience to disease outbreaks, reduce cases, and subvert negative impacts on the health systems in the Amazon region. This will give participants a better understanding of how US-based and faith-based organizations, such as World Vision, are responding to health outbreaks to keep diseases from crossing borders, and to protect the lives of children and families.

This visit will continue the focus on global health issues and will showcase how interventions can help reduce the spread of disease, giving staff a better understanding of the range of support for ending preventable diseases and informing staff's work on global health issues that fall under their portfolio.

Participants: Health care workers, House staff, IJM and World Vision staff

8:30-10:30 AM      Working Breakfast with Global Survivor Network (GSN)

After brief introductions, participants will observe a presentation by several individuals within the Peru chapter of the GSN, an international group of survivors of violence shaping and leading a movement to protect people from violence. This briefing will focus on the GSN's efforts in Peru, their collaboration with IJM and to illustrate the work IJM does to support restoration for victims of violence and survivor-centered response to these crimes.

It is important to understand how survivors of violence relate to IJM and how they advocate to and engage with the Peruvian government to prevent violence. Knowledge of this collaborative work will be helpful to staff as they consider future foreign assistance legislation and appropriations.

Presenters: GSN members

Location: Humano Lima Hotel (Mal. Balta 710, Miraflores 15074, Peru)

The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

10:30-11:30 AM      Transport by van to U.S. Embassy

11:30 – 12:30 PM      Visit to the U.S. Embassy in Lima and meeting with U.S. Embassy staff
U.S. Embassy personnel will host the staff for a meeting about U.S.-Peru relations and current U.S. foreign assistance programs in Peru. As a key regional partner, Peru has been a notable recipient of U.S. foreign assistance and an important trading partner of the United States. For decades, the U.S. Government has collaborated with the Peruvian government, private sector, and civil society to promote economic growth, strengthen institutions, and advance development outcomes.

This meeting is relevant to the trip because it will educate staff on the current dynamics of U.S.-Peru relations and U.S. foreign assistance in Peru, which is directly relevant to their work on the House Foreign Affairs and House Appropriations Committees.

Participants: House staff, IJM and WV staff, Embassy staff

Transport by van to Place of Memory, Tolerance and Social Inclusion (LUM)

3:30-5:00 PM

Guided Tour of Place of Memory, Tolerance and Social Inclusion (LUM)

House staff will participate in a guided tour of a Place of Memory, Tolerance and Social Inclusion (LUM), a national museum opened in 2015 and operated by the Peruvian government. This tour will convey vital, official information for House staff about Peru's internal armed conflict between the government and insurgent groups from 1980-2000.

According to a 2021 report from Rutgers University Press, “LUM navigates conflicting memories, balancing victims' narratives and military perspectives.” A tour of this museum is the best way to convey relevant information to House staff about Peru’s history of internal conflict and violence because the museum’s planners sought to incorporate diverse viewpoints within a consultative process that involved surveys and sample audiences from various viewpoints.

This museum is operated by Peru’s Ministry of Culture and a comprehensive tour from an official LUM guide will allow participants to receive a comprehensive historical picture of issues of violence that persist in Peru today. The tour will feature three floors of exhibits detailing the social inequities in Peru’s rural and Indigenous communities that factored into the ascent of insurgent groups, the government’s crackdown and the years of violence that ensued in the 1980s and 1990s.

July 1, 2026

Mr. Max Harris
Office of the Honorable Grace Meng
2468 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Harris:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Peru,<sup>1</sup> scheduled for July 6 to 11, 2026, sponsored by World Vision International and International Justice Mission.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

<sup>1</sup> Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,
