2:30 – 2:45 pm: Travel from lunch to Hospital Los Hermanos Ameijeiras

2:45 – 4:15 pm: Visit Hospital Los Hermanos Ameijeiras

The Hermanos Ameijeiras hospital is a leading clinical, surgical and teaching hospital in Cuba's Centro Habana neighborhood, housed in a 24-story building perched over the Malecón. During this visit, delegates will exchange with health officials, doctors, nurses, technicians and patients about the structure, mission and impacts of Cuba's public health care system, as well as the labor, material and technological shortages it currently faces. Delegates will witness firsthand scarcities of medications, medical inputs, machinery and personnel at the hospital, as well as learn about the preventative and community-based model that undergirds its operations. The visit will provide insight into opportunities for bilateral cooperation in public health between U.S and Cuban institutions as well as shed light on the impacts of U.S. regulations on public health outcomes, indicators and infrastructure in Cuba.

- Presenters: Ameijeiras Hospital directors and staff
- Location: Hospital Hermanos Ameijeiras, #701 Calle San Lazaro, Havana

4:15 – 4:30 pm: Visit “Hermandad” mural in front of Hospital Los Hermanos Ameijeiras

- Location: Hostal Calis, Calle 3ra e/ E y F,, Municipio Plaza, Havana

Overnight at Hostal Calis, Calle 3ra e/ E y F,, Municipio Plaza, Havana

Saturday, July 11th

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast and briefing of day’s activities

Delegates will be briefed on the day’s meetings. This meeting is important because it provides historical background and current context for meetings throughout the day. This information will be needed for understanding the day’s presentations and clarifying any questions about the groups and individuals we will meet. The entirety of the allotted time for the working breakfast will be spent covering officially-connected activity.

- Presenters: Elise Roberts, P-PIP director; Natasha Bannan and/or Camila Pineiro Harnecker, ACERE Co-Chairs

- Location: Hostal Calis, Calle 3ra e/ E y F,, Municipio Plaza, Havana

9:00 – 9:30 am Travel from hotel to Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

9:30 – 11:30 am: Meeting with Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center

The Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Center (CMMLK), located in Marianao, a working-class neighborhood in Havana, is a premier Cuban civil society and ecumenical institution that works with communities and churches across the island to promote participation in civic life. The CMMLK has deep ties to Protestant churches and humanitarian organizations in the United States, and many of its leaders have visited U.S. cities on educational exchanges in recent years. The meeting will provide delegates with information about religious expression and social participation in Cuba today, as well as the efforts of women, Afro-descendant and LGBTQ+ leaders to promote positive social change in Cuba. This meeting is important because delegates will learn about the impacts of U.S. policies on the CMMLK's foreign visitors program, as well as on Cuban churches and community organizations' ability to provide robust and meaningful services and programming for Cubans of all walks of life.

- Presenters: Rev. Izett Samá Hernández, Director; Dayanis Garcia, International Delegations Coordinator
- Location: CMMLK, 3HJH+PJ, Marianao, Havana

11:30 – 12:00 pm: Travel to farm and restaurant Finca Vista Hermosa

12:00 – 3:00 pm: Lunch and visit at Finca VistaHermosa

Delegates will visit the farm, restaurant and store ("farm to table" concept) at Finca VistaHermosa in Guanabacoa (Bacuranao), Havana where they will have a chance to learn about the efforts of sustainable, organic and semi-urban agriculture. The farm has a restaurant, stable, organic farming area and a store where it sells products made there by local farmers.

- Presenters: Director and workers of Finca VistaHermosa
- Location: Camino La Esperanza, Bacuranao, Havana

3:00 - 3:45 pm Travel to Latin American School of Medicine

3:45 - 5:30 pm: Visit U.S. students at Latin American School of Medicine

-The Latin American School of Medicine is among the largest medical schools in the world, with thousands of students enrolled from Africa, Latin America and Asia, as well as dozens of low-income students from the U.S. Hundreds of mostly African-American and Hispanic students from the U.S. have trained at the school tuition-free thanks to backing from the Congressional Black Caucus and support from a U.S. foundation, with the understanding that upon graduation they would practice medicine in underserved rural and urban communities throughout the U.S. The visit will provide delegates with an opportunity to meet some of these students and learn about Cuba's health care and higher education systems, as well as exchange with students from Africa and Latin America who similarly benefit from this debt-free medical education. Delegates will learn about how U.S. sanctions contribute to difficulties in the provision of medical and educational services in Cuba and be exposed to the history of public health and educational cooperation between U.S. and Cuban institutions. This meeting is important for delegates to understand the interests and challenges for US citizens studying medicine in Cuba, and to consider relevant future legislative priorities related to US-Cuban relations.

- Presenters: Students from the US currently attending the Latin American School of Medicine
- Location: Latin American School of Medicine, Carretera Panamericana Km 3 1/2, Carr. Panamericana, Havana

5:30 - 6:30 pm: Travel from Latin American School of Medicine to El Jardin de los Milagros paladar

6:30 – 8:30 pm Dinner at El Jardin de los Milagros paladar with Ambassadors

During this meeting, delegates will meet with ambassadors from Asian and Latin American nations accredited in Cuba, as well as United Nations representatives, to discuss issues of geopolitical, commercial and sociocultural importance. The meeting will focus on exploring more in-depth Cuba's bilateral and multilateral relations with countries and regional blocs in Asia, Latin America and the Caribbean, as well discuss solutions to pressing global challenges.

- Presenters: Various Asian/Latin American ambassadors to Cuba, including Mexican Ambassador Miguel Díaz Reynoso; Brazilian Ambassador Christian Vargas, Vietnam Ambassador..... and China Ambassador
- Location: El Jardin de los Milagros, Calle San Juan Bautista esq. 35, Nuevo Vedado, Municipio Plaza, Havana

8:30 – 9:00 pm: Travel from dinner to Fabrica del Arte

9:00 - 11:00 pm Visit Fábrica del Arte Cubano (optional)

Fábrica del Arte Cubano is Havana's premier, privately-operated community arts hub, which has hosted award-winning U.S., Cuban and international musicians and currently employs, directly or indirectly, hundreds of Cuban artists and entrepreneurs. In this visit, delegates will exchange with young Cuban filmmakers, actors, musicians and curators about the unique success and global recognition Fábrica achieved under past administrations, and the challenges it has faced amid Cuba's economic and humanitarian decline over the past five years. Delegates will learn about innovative U.S.-Cuba exchanges in the artistic, cultural and educational fields Fábrica has sponsored in the past decade; explore current exhibits and converse with their creators; and exchange with Cuban youth about cultural and employment opportunities on the island today.

- Presenters: X Alfonso, Director of Fábrica del Arte Cubano
- Location: Fabrica del Arte Cubana, 4HGR+X2X, Calle 26, Havana

Overnight at Hostal Calis, Calle 3ra e/ E y F,, Municipio Plaza, Havana

11:00 – 11:15 am: Pick up rest of delegation and travel to Quisicuaba community project and soup kitchen

11:15 – 12:30 pm: Visit Asociación Quisicuaba

Delegates will visit the long-standing and wide-reaching civil society-led community soup kitchen called Quisicuaba that focuses on providing food and a hot meal in the area of Centro Habana, focusing in particular on the elderly. Delegates will learn about the steep increase in meals provided under current economic and social conditions, as well as the ways that the community project brokers mutual aid, community exchanges and civic participation of all its members.

- Presenters: Director Enrique Aleman Gutierrez
- Location: Centro Havana

12:30 – 12:45 pm: Travel to El Callejon de Hamel

12:45 – 1:30 pm: Visit El Callejon de Hamel cultural and artistic project

-The Callejón de Hamel community arts project is an independent, self-sustaining hub of artists, entrepreneurs and cultural promoters working to preserve the island's diverse African-derived spiritualities through the built environment in one of Havana's most marginalized neighborhoods. The project redistributes income earned from foreign visitors to benefit community programming, including social work and artistic training for school children.

-The visit will provide delegates with a rich understanding of Cuba's religious diversity and insight into the linkages between international tourism, community empowerment and cultural preservation. Delegates will learn about how recent reductions in tourism to the island, stemming from the Covid-19 pandemic and U.S. regulations, have impacted the project's operations and contributed to out-migration among the small business owners and cultural workers based there.

- Presenters: Elias Aseff, Historian at Callejón de Hamel
- Location: Callejón de Hamel, Entre las calles Aramburu y Hospital, Cayo Hueso, Havana

12: Partnership for Participatory International Policy

The Partnership for Participatory International Policy (P-PIP) is a national organization with a mission focused on facilitating meaningful interactions between elected officials, their staff, and individuals directly affected by US policies and practices. Our core commitment lies in supporting international grassroots delegations, allowing policymakers to engage directly with those impacted; our goal is fostering informed policy-making and a greater understanding of the historical and current real-world implications of US policies. P-PIP coordinated all logistical planning for the trip and invited the participants for the delegation. P-PIP's director and staff will travel on the delegation. P-PIP will pay for the delegation by using general operating funds.

15(b)2: Objective and Location Selection

The objective of the delegation is to hear directly from Cubans about the impacts of US policies on Cuban communities. The specific locations and meetings were chosen based on where Cuban organizations are located and where P-PIP can ensure the safety of the delegates.

Dear Congresswoman Ramirez,

I am writing to invite you to join a custom-designed NODEL in Cuba from July 9th – 13th.

The delegation is focused on learning about the current economic and humanitarian crisis on the island, as well as how the recent Executive Order restricting the sale of petroleum to Cuba has affected Cuban society. During the visit, delegates will engage with members of Cuban civil society—religious and community leaders, entrepreneurs, agricultural producers, independent activists-- and government leaders, offering unique insight into the bilateral relationship between the United States and Cuba at this critical moment.

We will coordinate all aspects of the schedule and the preparation of forms for the House Ethics Committee, and we will cover all expenses for the trip. If you are able to attend, we will extend an invitation to a member of your staff to accompany you. While on-the-ground we will coordinate all transportation, interpretation, lodging, meals, and meetings, in line with US legal requirements.

Please let me know if you have questions, and feel free to reach out to me at 920.421.2269 if a text or phone call is easier. Thank you for considering this important delegation.

Sincerely,

Elise Roberts, Director

Ms. Marina Sangit
Office of the Honorable Delia Ramirez
1523 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Sangit:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Cuba,¹ scheduled for July 9 to 13, 2026, sponsored by Partnership for Participatory International Policy and Quincy Institute for Responsible Statecraft.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,
