4. List of All House Employees Invited

RMSP invited Congressional Chiefs of Staff to this retreat to provide a firsthand look at the industries, facilities, and employers that drive economic growth and job creation across the country. Through site visits to health care providers, manufacturers, energy producers, retailers, and environmental infrastructure facilities, Chiefs will gain practical insights into how federal policies impact operations, workers, and local communities. These tours offer an opportunity to engage directly with industry leaders, ask questions, and better understand the real-world challenges and opportunities facing constituents. By strengthening their knowledge of key sectors, Chiefs will be better equipped to advise Members, develop policy priorities, and support informed legislative decision-making.

Ted Verrill (Rep. Julia Letlow, LA-05)

Ted was invited because Rep. Letlow has focused on issues including education, workforce development, agriculture, and economic growth. The retreat will provide valuable insight into how major employers and industries are navigating policy challenges that affect communities across the country.

Hannah Fraher (Rep. Mike Haridopolos, FL-08)

Hannah was invited because Rep. Haridopolos has prioritized issues related to economic development, infrastructure, and workforce growth. Participation in the retreat will provide firsthand exposure to industries impacted by federal policy decisions in these areas.

Nikki Wallace (Rep. Mike Simpson, ID-02)

Nikki was invited because Rep. Simpson has been actively engaged on natural resources, environmental stewardship, and infrastructure issues. The retreat offers an opportunity to better understand how these policies affect employers, workers, and local communities.

Shana Teehan (Rep. Julie Fedorchak, ND-AL)

Shana was invited because Rep. Fedorchak has focused extensively on energy policy, regulatory issues, and economic development. The retreat will provide direct engagement with industries affected by these policy areas and the challenges they face.

Amanda Baldwin (Rep. Nathaniel Moran, TX-01)

Amanda was invited because Rep. Moran has focused on strengthening economic opportunity, workforce development, and support for American businesses. Participation will provide valuable insight into how policy decisions impact key industries and employers.

Mark Dreiling (Rep. Don Bacon, NE-02)

Mark was invited because Rep. Bacon has worked on issues related to economic growth, infrastructure, and workforce development. The retreat will offer practical perspectives on how these policies affect business operations and job creation.

Noah Yantis (Rep. Dan Newhouse, WA-04)

Noah was invited because Rep. Newhouse has been a leading voice on agriculture, energy, and rural economic development. The retreat provides an opportunity to engage directly with industries that are affected by federal policies in these sectors.

Bryan Wheat (Rep. Celeste Maloy, UT-02)

Bryan was invited because Rep. Maloy has focused on energy, natural resources, and economic growth issues. Participation in the retreat will help strengthen understanding of how policy decisions impact employers and communities.

Tyler Moore (Rep. Gabe Evans, CO-08)

Tyler was invited because Rep. Evans has focused on issues including workforce development, public safety, and economic opportunity. The retreat will provide valuable insight into how employers, energy producers, health care providers, and other industries are navigating policy challenges that impact communities across the country.

Marisa Burleson (Rep. Greg Murphy, NC-03)

Marisa was invited because Rep. Murphy has been a strong advocate for health care access, workforce development, and economic growth. The retreat will provide firsthand exposure to industries that are directly affected by federal health care and economic policies.

Caroline Bender (Rep. Erin Houchin, IN-09)

Caroline was invited because Rep. Houchin has focused on policies that support economic growth, workforce development, and business investment. Participation will provide valuable insight into the challenges and opportunities facing major employers and industries.

Christopher Hall (Rep. John McGuire, VA-05)

Christopher was invited because Rep. McGuire has worked on issues related to economic development, energy, and workforce growth. The retreat offers an opportunity to better understand how these policy areas affect employers and local communities.

Maddie Mitchell (Rep. Jen Kiggans, VA-02)

Maddie was invited because Rep. Kiggans has been actively engaged on health care, workforce development, and economic opportunity issues. The retreat will provide direct exposure to industries that are impacted by policies in these areas.

Taylor Weyeneth (Rep. Nicole Malliotakis, NY-11)

Taylor was invited because Rep. Malliotakis has focused on affordability, economic growth, and improving government efficiency. Participation in the retreat will provide valuable perspectives from employers and industry leaders on these issues.

Ken Clifford (Rep. Mariannette Miller-Meeks, IA-01)

Ken was invited because Rep. Miller-Meeks has extensive experience on health care policy and economic development issues. The retreat offers an opportunity to engage with employers and providers navigating challenges related to workforce, innovation, and service delivery.

Karen Navarro (Rep. Monica De La Cruz, TX-15)

Karen was invited because Rep. De La Cruz has prioritized workforce development, economic opportunity, and support for American businesses. The retreat will provide firsthand insight into industries that are directly impacted by federal policy decisions.

12: Republican Main Street Partnership's Interest in the Subject Matter of the Trip and Role in Organizing and/or Conducting the Trip

The Republican Main Street Partnership has a strong interest in policies that promote economic growth, strengthen American competitiveness, and improve opportunities for working families. The industries highlighted throughout this retreat are directly affected by federal decisions on health care, energy, workforce development, environmental policy, supply chains, and economic regulation, making firsthand engagement critical to understanding the impacts of public policy. By connecting Congressional Chiefs of Staff with employers, innovators, and community leaders, RMSP helps ensure that Main Street Members are informed by real-world experiences as they develop and advance practical, results-oriented solutions.

As the sole sponsor of this event, RMSP extends the invitation and manages every aspect of the experience for participants. This includes programming coordination, travel arrangements, and overnight accommodation. By doing so, RMSP ensures policymakers can focus fully on engaging on the programming and contribute to important policy conversations.

15(b)(1): Costs listed are approximate.

- Thursday Buffett Dinner: $75
- Friday Breakfast: $45
- Friday Boxed Lunch: $45
- Friday Buffett Dinner: $75
- Saturday Breakfast: $45
- Saturday Boxed Lunch: $45

15(b)(2): The Reasoning for Selecting the Location of the Event or Trip

Williamsburg was selected as the host city because of its proximity to a diverse range of facilities that showcase critical sectors of the American economy, including health care, manufacturing, energy, retail, and environmental services. The region provides a unique opportunity for Chiefs of Staff to participate in multiple high-impact site visits while minimizing travel time and maximizing engagement with industry leaders and local stakeholders. Additionally, Williamsburg offers a convenient and accessible setting for Members' senior staff to step away from Washington and focus on professional development, policy discussions, and peer-to-peer collaboration.

16. Reasons for Selecting Hotel

Kingsmill Resort was selected because it offers the security, meeting space, accommodations, and amenities necessary to support a productive multi-day retreat for Congressional Chiefs of Staff. Its central location provides convenient access to the various site visits and industry tours scheduled throughout the program while minimizing travel logistics for participants. The resort's professional setting also creates an ideal environment for policy discussions, networking, and collaboration among senior congressional staff outside of Washington.

Mr. Eric Mendoza
Office of the Honorable Monica De La Cruz
1415 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Mendoza:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, scheduled for July 16 to 19, 2026, sponsored by Republican Main Street Partnership.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
