The delegation provided valuable insight into how global companies and one of our closest allies are approaching many of the same policy issues Congress is actively considering, including AI, cybersecurity, energy, consumer protection, transportation, and emerging technologies. The relationships built with congressional colleagues, industry leaders, and UK officials will continue to support my work supporting Rep. Ellzey's legislative and appropriations priorities.

- Netflix: Provided perspective on how global media companies navigate evolving regulatory environments and engage on technology, trade, and public policy issues.
- Cohesity: A valuable discussion on cybersecurity, AI, and data protection that reinforced the importance of public-private collaboration as Congress considers future policy frameworks.
- Meta: Showcased emerging AI technologies and highlighted the policy considerations surrounding consumer adoption, privacy, and connectivity.
- Reception with Dame Karen Pierce: Strengthened relationships with UK officials, congressional staff, and private-sector leaders while reinforcing the importance of the U.S.-UK partnership.
- Salesforce: Provided practical examples of how trusted AI is improving government operations while maintaining security and public trust.
- Toyota: Offered insight into how policy influences investment in advanced manufacturing, electrification, and the future of mobility.
- Sony: Highlighted industry approaches to online safety and consumer protection, particularly as they relate to children and digital platforms.
- Bp: Provided perspective on global energy markets, energy security, and the role of policy in shaping long-term investment decisions.
- UK Foreign Office Reception: Offered insight into UK foreign policy priorities and the continued importance of transatlantic cooperation on shared strategic issues.
- Buckingham Palace / Royal Household: Provided perspective on institutional leadership and public service through engagement with senior leaders from the Royal Household.
- Apple: Explored the intersection of innovation, digital payments, consumer technology, and global regulatory policy.
- Jo Malone & UK Department for Business and Trade: Demonstrated how government and industry collaborate to support trade, economic growth, and globally recognized consumer brands.
- Darjeeling Express: Provided an entrepreneur's perspective on leadership, business growth, and organizational culture.

Question 12

GlobalWIN highlights women leaders and connects the public and private sectors through programming that includes networking receptions, policy roundtables, career workshops, and educational trips in the United States and abroad.

Our stay in England will combine all tiers of GlobalWIN programming and provide participants a rare opportunity to grow professionally while connecting with experts and leaders outside of the United States. GlobalWIN has organized and planned many domestic and international trips over the last 16 years.

This trip was planned with the professional guidance of our Co-Founder and President, Helen Milby, Executive Director Angeli Chawla, Senior Advisor Andrea Mietus and Senior Outreach Manager, Zoriana Moulton.

Question 15-2

GlobalWIN selected London for its strong transatlantic ties and wealth of expertise across key policy areas, including data privacy, healthcare, trade, female leadership, and technology innovation. This has become a trip we have continued to host each year due to the relationship and wealth of

From July 26–30, we will bring 20 bipartisan Congressional staffers to London for three days of intensive programming. London offers direct access to GlobalWIN allies and leaders outside the United States, enriching participants' subject-matter knowledge and professional growth through high-impact meetings and timely insights.

Question 18 – Cost of Lodging (4 Nights)

GlobalWIN is extending the hotel stay for the evening of Sunday, June 26, 2026 for the delegation. This will ensure that upon arrival in the United Kingdom early Monday morning, delegates will have immediate access to their rooms to freshen up before the official programming begins.

Given that the group will be traveling overnight in economy accommodation and adjusting to the time difference, this additional night is intended to allow the delegation time to rest and prepare before the start of scheduled activities.

Dear Molly,

On behalf of the Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN), we would like to invite you to join us for an educational trip to London, England . We will depart Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD) on Sunday, July 26th - Thursday, July 30th and programming will begin on Monday, July 27th and we will return to Washington Dulles International Airport (IAD), on Thursday evening, July 30th.

During our time in London, GlobalWIN will host events and meetings on issues such as AI, manufacturing, healthcare, female leadership, innovation in tech, and the US/UK bilateral relationship. We are working with a number of GlobalWIN allies to schedule corporate site visits, meetings with senior women in the British government and the US Embassy, as well as a series of receptions to round out our time in London. More information about GlobalWIN can be found on our website. Your work on these topics and active participation in our discussions will be a great asset to our delegation, which will include senior staff from both Republican and Democratic House offices.

GlobalWIN will cover your travel, hotel, and meal expenses related to the trip and programming, in compliance with the rules under House ethics laws. The submission of your ethics materials is due Friday, June 26th.

Sincerely,

Helen Milby
Co-Founder & President

Ms. Molly Stevens
Office of the Honorable Jake Ellzey
1721 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Stevens:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to United Kingdom,¹ scheduled for July 26 to 30, 2026, sponsored by Global Women's Innovation Network (GlobalWIN).

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,
