FRS Congressional Broadband Tour South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, and Nebraska August 11-14, 2026

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) is a 501c3 non-profit dedicated to enhancing quality of life in America by promoting a better understanding of rural issues. The vision of FRS is to harness the power of the rural communications industry to enrich lives in America.

The purpose of this trip is to educate Capitol Hill staff on the geographic and financial challenges of providing robust broadband service to remote rural areas, as well as to highlight the role rural telecom companies play in providing these essential services that support education, commercial activity, agriculture, health, and public safety. Attendees will meet with a range of small, rural telecommunications companies in the selected areas as well as companies that rely on broadband to provide essential services to their communities. The group will also visit rural community leaders and discuss ways in which the states have been enhanced by broadband applications. Drive times will provide an opportunity for educational sessions on the bus, as well as illustrate the difficulty of serving "last mile" areas in rural states.

No registered federal lobbyists will attend this trip. All expenses will be paid in full by the Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) and will be subject to the daily per diem allowances for Senate and House employees—all meals, lodging, and transportation for staffers will be covered by FRS within these allowance rates. There will be at least 6.5 hours of educational content each day.

In 2003, local leaders established the Dakota County Economic Development Committee, which was the impetus for Siouxland Ethanol, LLC. Project leaders contacted seed investors, who contributed $1 million to fund a feasibility study and corn origination study. The committee knew the area's strong transportation system (including rail and hard-surface roads), reliable and cost-effective utilities, groundwater and discharge water sources, and abundant corn available in and around Dakota County could contribute to a successful ethanol plant.

Siouxland Ethanol was formed as a limited liability company in Nebraska in August 2004 and an equity drive quickly raised $36 million. In addition to the equity drive, Siouxland Ethanol also used several economic development incentives from the State of Nebraska, as well as a Community Development Block Grant and a TIF district established by the Village of Jackson, to finance the plant.

Designed to produce 50 million gallons of ethanol each year, Siouxland Ethanol became operational in May 2007. The plant consumes 30 million bushels of corn each year to produce a clean-burning, high-octane gasoline additive. This corn is purchased from local farmers and elevators and the resources are returned to local communities.

ATTACHMENT B – Answer to question #12

For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

FRS is the primary sponsor of the trip, with planning assistance from the South Dakota Telecommunications Association (SDTA), the Iowa Communications Alliance (ICA), and the Nebraska Telecommunications Association, which provided guidance in identifying potential visits on the trip, as well as meal and hotel locations. FRS will incur all expenses. The mission of FRS is to enhance the quality of life in rural America through philanthropic and education programs.

SDTA's membership is comprised of South Dakota's cooperative, small commercial, municipal and tribal telecommunications companies. These companies provide broadband, telephone and video services to approximately three-quarters of South Dakota's land mass. SDTA provides educational and training opportunities on the newest and best technologies available - all in an effort to assist our member companies in their efforts to bring the best service possible to their customers and communities.

The ICA represents more than 116 community-based telecommunications providers who offer broadband, telephone and digital television services to rural Iowans. The organization strives to achieve better telecommunications by educating members, policymakers, legislators, customers and the media about the indispensable services ICA members provide to their communities, customers and the entire state of Iowa.

Members of the NTA provide quality, affordable, and reliable communications services to all Nebraskans. The mission of the NTA is to enhance the opportunities of its members by advocating member interests, offering education, and promoting a positive image of the industry.

ATTACHMENT B – Answer to question #12

For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

FRS is the primary sponsor of the trip, with planning assistance from the South Dakota Telecommunications Association (SDTA), the Iowa Communications Alliance (ICA), and the Nebraska Telecommunications Association, which provided guidance in identifying potential visits on the trip, as well as meal and hotel locations. FRS will incur all expenses. The mission of FRS is to enhance the quality of life in rural America through philanthropic and education programs.

SDTA's membership is comprised of South Dakota's cooperative, small commercial, municipal and tribal telecommunications companies. These companies provide broadband, telephone and video services to approximately three-quarters of South Dakota's land mass. SDTA provides educational and training opportunities on the newest and best technologies available - all in an effort to assist our member companies in their efforts to bring the best service possible to their customers and communities.

The ICA represents more than 116 community-based telecommunications providers who offer broadband, telephone and digital television services to rural Iowans. The organization strives to achieve better telecommunications by educating members, policymakers, legislators, customers and the media about the indispensable services ICA members provide to their communities, customers and the entire state of Iowa.

Members of the NTA provide quality, affordable, and reliable communications services to all Nebraskans. The mission of the NTA is to enhance the opportunities of its members by advocating member interests, offering education, and promoting a positive image of the industry.

FOUNDATION FOR RURAL SERVICE

FRS Congressional Broadband Tour South Dakota, Minnesota, Iowa, and Nebraska August 11-14, 2026

The Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) is a 501c3 non-profit dedicated to enhancing quality of life in America by promoting a better understanding of rural issues. The vision of FRS is to harness the power of the rural communications industry to enrich lives in America.

The purpose of this trip is to educate Capitol Hill staff on the geographic and financial challenges of providing robust broadband service to remote rural areas, as well as to highlight the role rural telecom companies play in providing these essential services that support education, commercial activity, agriculture, health, and public safety. Attendees will meet with a range of small, rural telecommunications companies in the selected areas as well as companies that rely on broadband to provide essential services to their communities. The group will also visit rural community leaders and discuss ways in which the states have been enhanced by broadband applications. Drive times will provide an opportunity for educational sessions on the bus, as well as illustrate the difficulty of serving "last mile" areas in rural states.

No registered federal lobbyists will attend this trip. All expenses will be paid in full by the Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) and will be subject to the daily per diem allowances for Senate and House employees—all meals, lodging, and transportation for staffers will be covered by FRS within these allowance rates. There will be at least 6.5 hours of educational content each day.

Tour Siouxland Ethanol -- operational since 2007, this facility turns locally grown corn into 100 million gallons of renewable fuel each year. Northeast Nebraska Telephone Company provides the broadband service necessary for operations.

In 2003, local leaders established the Dakota County Economic Development Committee, which was the impetus for Siouxland Ethanol, LLC. Project leaders contacted seed investors, who contributed $1 million to fund a feasibility study and corn origination study. The committee knew the area's strong transportation system (including rail and hard-surface roads), reliable and cost-effective utilities, groundwater and discharge water sources, and abundant corn available in and around Dakota County could contribute to a successful ethanol plant.

Siouxland Ethanol was formed as a limited liability company in Nebraska in August 2004 and an equity drive quickly raised $36 million. In addition to the equity drive, Siouxland Ethanol also used several economic development incentives from the State of Nebraska, as well as a Community Development Block Grant and a TIF district established by the Village of Jackson, to finance the plant.

Designed to produce 50 million gallons of ethanol each year, Siouxland Ethanol became operational in May 2007. The plant consumes 30 million bushels of corn each year to produce a clean-burning, high-octane gasoline additive. This corn is purchased from local farmers and elevators and the resources are returned to local communities.
