Mr. Jacob Glasser
Office of the Honorable Sarah McBride
1306 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Glasser:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Charlottesville, Virginia, scheduled for August 5 to 7, 2026, sponsored by Former Members of Congress and Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

4. This program is intended for senior Congressional Staff at offices of current Members of the United States Congress; FMC invited Chiefs of Staff who have participated in Congressional travel to the region and senior staff who have previously expressed interest in Indo-Pacific issues and – in particular, security, energy, trade, and social issues – and whose Members serve on committees relevant to the program’s issue areas. Please find enclosed a list of all invitees.

12. The Congressional Study Groups are among the largest and most active parliamentary exchange programs between the U.S. Congress and our allies abroad. The Study Groups on Japan and Korea, respectively, foster mutual understanding through regular roundtables in Washington, DC throughout the year in addition to trips such as Chief of Staff Study Tours to Japan, and domestic travel programs such as this Asia Retreat. They offer senior congressional staff a unique educational forum to better understand the complex issues facing allies in the Indo-Pacific from the standpoint of security, energy policy, bilateral and multilateral trade agreements, immigration, and demographic change.

FMC’s Congressional Study Group on Japan is responsible for organizing the program, arranging meetings, and inviting expert speakers to the study tour. FMC is solely responsible for all invitations to and communications with program participants, as well as the budget for the 2026 Senior Senior Congressional Staff Retreat on Asia.

Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA awards grant monies to fund the year-round programming of The Congressional Study Group on Japan as a part of their mission of promoting understanding between the U.S. and Japan. Experts from Sasakawa USA will participate in select roundtables as panelists.

15. b. 2) Charlottesville was selected to play host to the 2026 Senior Congressional Staff Retreat on Asia for its convenient location, proximity to locally-based experts on the Indo-Pacific at institutions such as the University of Virginia, as well as landmarks and attractions which encourage Congressional staff to participate in the program.

Additional Sponsor Form Addendum: Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA

4. Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA receives a grant from the Embassy of Japan to fund the Japan-U.S. Military Program (JUMP). That is the only funding Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA receives from a foreign government, and it is only for this JUMP program. No Embassy of Japan funding is ever put towards the grant for the U.S. Association of Former Members of Congress.
