Mr. Sameer Jaywant
Office of the Honorable Jesus G. "Chuy" García
2334 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Jaywant:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Mexico,¹ scheduled for September 19 to 20, 2026, sponsored by Global Exchange.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

¹ Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at <https://step.state.gov>.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Question 4:

Sameer Jaywant (Legislative Director/Senior Counsel, Chuy García): Oversees Chuy García's office's legislative agenda and policy portfolio, including García's foreign affairs work on Mexico and Central America. Chuy García has emphasized U.S. relations with Mexico, Central, and South America, favoring diplomacy and foreign aid over enforcement-first approaches. Has pressed the administration on press freedom and violence in Mexico. Long-standing engagement on U.S.-Mexico relations specifically. Sameer serves as the direct staff counterpart for coordinating Summit follow-up through García's office.

Sara Engelhard (Foreign Policy Advisor, Delia Ramirez): Leads Rep. Ramirez's foreign affairs, security, trade, and international human rights portfolio, including managing the Global Migration Caucus. Recently completed a delegation trip to Colombia, where she spoke about building relationships with regional neighbors based on respect and cooperation. Direct staff counterpart for coordinating post-Summit follow-up through Ramirez's office.

Pramila Jayapal (WA-07): Ranking Member of the House Judiciary Subcommittee on Immigration Integrity, Security, and Enforcement. Her subcommittee role and firsthand delegation experience in the region align directly with the Summit's migration and human rights Agenda.

Greg Casar (TX-35): Co-founded the Congressional Caucus on Global Migration; advocates addressing the foreign-policy root causes of forced migration. Supports limiting weapons proliferation and favoring diplomacy in foreign policy. Relevant to the Summit's arms trafficking and migration agenda.

Arpi Karapetyan (Senior Policy Adviser, Greg Casar): Supports Rep. Casar's legislative portfolio, including his foreign affairs and migration policy work. Direct staff counterpart for coordinating Summit follow-up through Casar's office.

Chuy García (IL-4): Has stated a focus on U.S. relations with Mexico, Central, and South America, favoring diplomacy and foreign aid over enforcement-first approaches. Has pressed the administration on press freedom and violence in Mexico. Long-standing engagement on U.S.-Mexico relations specifically.

Keane Bhatt (Policy Director, Congressional Progressive Caucus): Coordinates policy across the ~100-member Progressive Caucus. His role can connect Summit outcomes into follow-up across member offices.

Ayanna Pressley (MA-07) — Co-Chair of the House Haiti Caucus and a leading voice against Title 42 and family separation; last year she traveled to Mexico City to meet with Sheinbaum administration officials, labor groups, and civil society on immigration and arms trafficking prevention specifically. She's one of the few Members with recent firsthand binational engagement on this exact agenda.

Sara Jacobs (CA-51) — Sits on the Foreign Affairs Western Hemisphere Subcommittee and co-introduced the No Unauthorized War in Mexico Act with Castro and Stanton, directly opposing unilateral U.S. military action against cartels — squarely on-message for a summit resisting militarized responses to Mexico.

Joaquín Castro (TX-20) — Ranking Member of the Western Hemisphere Subcommittee and the chamber's most prolific author of arms-trafficking legislation (ARMAS Act, Stop Arming Cartels Act, CATCH Act), consistently framing U.S. gun exports as a driver of violence and forced migration across the region.

André Carson (IN-07) — Intelligence Committee member and longtime Congressional Black Caucus voice on Haiti and hemispheric human rights, with a record pushing to curb the flow of U.S. arms that empower criminal groups and destabilize neighboring countries.

Ro Khanna (CA-17) — Armed Services Committee member with a consistent record pressing for human-rights conditions on U.S. arms transfers and against unchecked foreign military sales; brings institutional credibility on the arms-export oversight piece of the agenda.

Jonathan Jackson (IL-01) — Also sits on the Western Hemisphere Subcommittee alongside Castro and Jacobs, giving him direct committee jurisdiction over the same State Department human rights and civilian security portfolios the summit addresses.

Yassamin Ansari (AZ-03) — Represents a heavily immigrant Phoenix district, has conducted oversight visits to Arizona detention facilities, and has been an outspoken advocate for detained asylum seekers and DACA recipients. Ansari is a border-state voice on the human cost of enforcement policy.

Adelita Grijalva (AZ-07) — Represents the Arizona district that runs almost the entire length of the U.S.-Mexico border; a cosponsor of the ARMAS Act and active on detention oversight, she inherited her father Raúl Grijalva's decades of border and hemispheric human rights advocacy.

Maxwell Frost (FL-10) — Co-introduced the Stop Arming Cartels Act with Castro and Escobar, directly targeting the .50-caliber rifle trafficking pipeline that has armed cartels in Mexico. This is one of the clearest legislative links to Global Exchange's project, Stop US Arms to Mexico's, core issue.

Question 12:

Global Exchange is an international human rights organization based in San Francisco, California. Global Exchange has staff in Mexico, Colombia, and the United States.

Global Exchange is funding and bringing a Congressional delegation to Ciudad Juárez to meet with U.S. and Mexican human rights organizers across the issue areas of armed violence and survivors of gun violence, migrants and migrant rights organizations, Indigenous and Afro-descendant people, and economic treaties. The goal of the delegation is to hear firsthand accounts of the root causes of migration and violence in Mexico, and to see how U.S. foreign policy can better account for these experiences when shaping security, drug, environmental, Indigenous, and economic policy toward Mexico.

Question 15(b)(2):

The Peace Summit is an annual gathering of organizations, activists, academics, foundations, and survivors of violence from the U.S. and Mexico. We chose to hold the Peace Summit 2026 in Ciudad Juárez because of the binational nature of the Peace Summit and the People's Movement for Peace and Justice, and Global Exchange's strong organizational connections there.

At the Peace Summit, attendees will share preliminary findings from documented human rights violations in their communities. An appointed jury will listen and develop a report to present at the International Tribunal of Conscience for Peoples in Movement in October 2026.

Hi Sameer,

I wanted to follow up in writing to confirm the details of our phone conversation on July 29, 2026, at 1:02 pm, regarding the Cumbre Binacional por la Paz / Peace Summit delegation to Ciudad Juárez (September 19–20, 2026).

During that call, I personally invited you to join the delegation alongside Rep. Jesús "Chuy" García. We discussed Rep. García's interest in the trip given his focus on U.S.-Mexico issues and economic justice, his schedule around an awards ceremony in Illinois on the evening of the 18th, and his availability on the 19th and 20th. Your own attendance, alongside the Congressman's, was part of that invitation.

I understand the House Ethics Committee has asked that we document this for your post-travel disclosure. Please let me know if you need any additional detail from me for that purpose, and feel free to share this email with Committee counsel as needed.

Best,

Delegates will meet with Global Exchange staff to learn about the organization's ongoing initiatives and programs in Mexico, including its work on arms trafficking, human rights, and binational advocacy. This is important because it orients delegates to the organizational context and on-the-ground work underpinning the Peace Summit before engaging directly with Mexican legislators and civil society. The allotted time for lunch and introductions will be spent covering officially connected activity.

Presenter:

- Tania Del Moral, Global Exchange

Location: Four Points Sheraton Hotel, Avenida Del Charro, Partido Díaz 215-2, Col, 32349 Juárez, Chih., Mexico

Delegates will meet with Peace Summit participants. The delegates will hear the Tribunal jury's initial findings on human rights violations. Then, they will hear selected spokespeople from the Peace Summit. Finally, the delegates will ask clarifying questions and propose ways to collaborate. This meeting is important because it allows the delegates to connect with people concerned and directly affected by armed violence, environmental crises, trade treaties, racial and Indigenous injustices, and migration. The entire allotted time for the meeting and presentations will be spent covering officially connected activity.

Presenters:

- Kathy Kruger, Al Otro Lado

5:30-6:15 Pen and paper interview with press

Delegates will join Members of the Mexican Congress in a pen-and-paper interview with binational independent media on the findings and outcomes of the Peace Summit's human rights tribunal. This matters because it lets delegates publicly demonstrate U.S. congressional engagement on binational human rights concerns and communicate policy priorities directly to press audiences on both sides of the border.

Independent media outlets:

- La Jornada (Mexico)
- La Disputa Media (Mexico)

- Rompeviento TV (Mexico)
- El Molino Informativo (U.S.)
- Radio Jornalera, (U.S.)

Delegates will meet with Global Exchange, PMPJ leaders, and members of the Tribunal jury to discuss the human rights violations testimony presented at the Peace Summit and ask follow-up questions about specific cases and patterns raised. This is important because it gives delegates direct, informal access to the individuals conducting the human rights fact-finding process, deepening their understanding beyond the formal session earlier in the day. The allotted dinner time will be spent on officially connected activity.

Presenters:

- Marco Castillo, Co-Executive Director, Global Exchange
- Elena Gutiérrez, Mexico-US Program Director, Global Exchange

Location: Colegio Teresiano, ubicado en Av. Plutarco Elías Calles 2855, Mascareñas, 32340 Juárez, Chih

8:00 - 9:00 am: Breakfast at the hotel with Mexican legislators

Delegates will meet with Members of the Mexican Congress to discuss takeaways from the Peace Summit and identify areas for continued binational legislative collaboration as the delegation prepares to depart. The allotted time for the breakfast and presentations will be spent covering officially connected activity.
