Mr. Cameron Fox
Office of the Honorable Juan Ciscomani
461 Cannon House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Mr. Fox:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Austin, Texas, scheduled for October 7 to 10, 2026, sponsored by Center Forward.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

12. Sponsor’s interest in the subject matter and role in organizing the trip:
Center Forward's Innovation Conference is being convened to bring together a bipartisan group of senior legislative staff from the House of Representatives to discuss innovation and development in America's critical industries, and how the federal government can foster business growth and further scientific progress. Center Forward’s organizational mission is to provide pragmatic policymakers the information they need to craft common-sense solutions and provide support in turning those ideas into results. Center Forward brings together Members of Congress, their staffs, not-for profits, academic experts, trade associations, corporations, and unions to find common ground.

Center Forward is the sole organizer of the trip. Center Forward is planning the conference and is responsible for the organization and execution of the event logistics as well as the programming content. Discussion topics will artificial intelligence regulation, data centers and energy use, low earth orbit satellite telecommunications, advanced manufacturing, tobacco harm reduction technologies and regulatory approval, circular supply chains and sustainability, agriculture and food supply chains, dual-use technology for national security, and the local tech startup ecosystem. Conference attendees will be senior legislative staffers from House member offices, and will speak with researchers, engineers, business leaders, and startup founders in the Austin area.

15.b.2) Provide the reason for selecting the location of the event or trip:
Austin, Texas, was selected as the location for the location of this conference to give attendees an on-the-ground experience in one of America's largest innovation hub cities. The Greater Austin area has been the recipient of substantial government investment in recent years, attracting companies in artificial intelligence, telecommunications, advanced manufacturing, and other industries to move significant business operations to the area. Coupled with an open business environment that has welcomed cutting-edge companies, goods, adn services and a highly-skilled talent pool, Austin remains a powerful center for business growth and innovative research. Throughout the conference, attendees will see the results of investment in these industries and learn about the unique culture that attracts business growth and talent from across the country.
