Ms. Ella Yates
Committee on the Judiciary
2138 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Yates:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to New York, New York, scheduled for October 8 to 9, 2026, sponsored by NCTA - The Internet and Television Association. We remind you that, because the trip sponsor employs a federal lobbyist, you may participate in officially-connected activity on one calendar day only. We note you are not accepting return transportation from the trip sponsor.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest
Chairman

Primary Trip Sponsor Form
Supplemental Responses

12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

NCTA is the principal trade association for the cable television and broadband industry. Attendance by Congressional staff on this trip provides the best opportunity to demonstrate the industry's significance to the U.S. economy, U.S. innovation, and job growth.

NCTA is the sole organizer and planner of this trip and all the events associated with the trip. NCTA worked with its member companies to arrange for the tours of their facilities and to determine availability of the facilities and staff for tours, presentations, and other planned events.

15. I represent that either:
b. The trip involves events that are arranged specifically with regard to congressional participation.
1) Detail the cost per day of meals (approximate cost may be provided):

Thursday, October 8, 2026: Approximately $10 breakfast, $17 lunch, and $65 dinner

2) Provide the reason for selecting the location of the event or trip:
Many of NCTA's video programmer member companies have major facilities in New York City, allowing us to visit multiple locations in one day and give staff a diverse learning experience that will provide insight into NCTA members' current and future technologies and services.

NCTA New York City Congressional Trip

October 8 – 9, 2026

New York City

Thursday, October 8, 2026

5:55 – 8:54 AM — Acela Train to NYC
Depart: Union Station; Arrive: Moynihan Station

9:15 – 10:30 AM — AMC Global Media (1 hr. 15 min.) - Breakfast
11 Pennsylvania Plaza, New York, NY 10001

Welcome: Kristin Dolan, Chief Executive Officer of AMC Global Media
Fireside Chat: Kristin Dolan, CEO of AMC Global Media and Hon. Cory Gardner
President & CEO

AMC Global Media will host a breakfast with key leaders from across the company that represent important parts of the businesses including creative/production, distribution and ad sales, technology, marketing and publicity. The format will include a fireside chat with AMC Global Media's CEO, followed by Q&A with short educational videos. The conversation will provide an educational overview of how AMC Global Media, as an independent programmer, taps into creators, partners and audiences to drive innovation and competition in the media and entertainment industry.

10:30 – 11:00 AM — 30-minute travel

11:00 – 12:15 PM — Versant (1 hr. 15 min.)
229 West 43rd Street, New York, NY 10036

Staffers will meet with MSNOW in-air talent in Versant's new studios and have a substantive conversation with KC Sullivan, President of CNBC. These tours and conversations will educate staffers about important aspects of news and opinion programming, including the talent, production techniques, distribution methods, and technologies needed to deliver quality live and near-live programming to the American public.

12:15 – 12:30 PM — 15 minute travel

12:30 – 2:00 PM — Comcast/NBCUniversal (1 hr. 30 min.) - Lunch
30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112

The Comcast/NBCU studio tour and presentation will educate staff on the content creation and TV production process. Staff will have an opportunity to go into the control room to see how content is monitored and may hear from technical experts how they manage multiple streams of content to ensure that it is successfully delivered to homes across America. Staff also will have an opportunity to see the NBCU studios. On this stop, staff can observe the number of jobs that support the content development process and get a feel for the amount of investment that goes into running a successful network. A presenter will also be on hand to discuss the importance of protecting these jobs and investments through strong intellectual property laws, which in turn promote further investment in high-quality content.

2:00 – 2:30 PM — 30-minute travel

2:30 – 3:45 PM — Paramount (1 hr. 15 min.)
524 W 57th Streer, New York, NY 10019

A visit to Paramount's New York Broadcast Center to explore how live television is created, from the development of a show concept through daily production and broadcast. Congressional staff will learn about the collaborative work of producers, writers, directors, technical crews, and on-air talent that brings nationally recognized programming to audiences each day, as well as the economic and workforce impact of television production in New York City.

The visit will conclude with a behind-the-scenes tour of the Broadcast Center, including an exclusive look at the set of The Drew Barrymore Show, where congressional staff will see the production facilities, studio spaces, and technical operations that power one of television's most popular daytime programs.

3:45 – 4:15 PM — 30-minute travel

4:15 PM – 5:30 PM — Disney/ESPN (1 hr. 15 min.)
7 Hudson Square, NY, NY 10013

This visit will encompass a tour of Disney/ABC's new headquarters at 7 Hudson Square. The space is now home to live productions, editorial, streaming, technology, advertising, and business support functions. Visitors will tour studios and speak with technology specialists.

Welcome: Kristin Dolan, Chief Executive Officer of AMC Global Media Fireside Chat: Kristin Dolan, CEO of AMC Global Media; Rich DiGeronimo, President, Product and Technology of Spectrum and Hon. Cory Gardner, President & CEO of NCTA AMC Global Media will host a breakfast for attendees featuring a fireside chat with CEO Kristin Dolan and Spectrum President of Product & Technology, Rich DeGeronimo, moderated by NCTA President & CEO Cory Gardner. Following the conversation, leaders from AMC's Global Technology & Operations team will present on how the company is developing generative AI tools to support the everyday productivity efforts of the business across content rights management, content licensing marketing and more with live demonstrations.
10:30 – 11:00 AM	30-minute travel
11:00 – 12:15 PM	Versant (1 hr. 15 min.)	229 West 43rd Street, New York, NY 10036
Staffers will meet with MSNOW in-air talent in Versant's new studios and have a substantive conversation with KC Sullivan, President of CNBC. These tours and conversations will educate staffers about important aspects of news and opinion programming, including the talent, production techniques, distribution methods, and technologies needed to deliver quality live and near-live programming to the American public.
12:15 – 12:30 PM	15-minute travel
12:30 – 2:00 PM	Comcast/NBCUniversal (1 hr. 30 min.)	30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10112
The Comcast/NBCU studio tour and presentation will educate staff on the content creation and TV production process. Staff will have an opportunity to go into the control room to see how content is monitored and may hear from technical experts how they manage multiple streams of content to ensure that it is successfully delivered to homes across America. Staff also will have an opportunity to see the NBCU studios. On this stop, staff can observe the number of jobs that support the content development process and get a feel for the amount of investment that goes into running a successful network. A presenter will also be on hand to discuss the importance of protecting these jobs and investments through strong intellectual property laws, which in turn promote further investment in high-quality content.

2:30 – 3:45 PM	Paramount (1 hr. 15 min.)	524 W 57th Street, New York, NY 10019
A visit to Paramount's New York Broadcast Center to explore how live television is created, from the development of a show concept through daily production and broadcast. Congressional staff will learn about the collaborative work of producers, writers, directors, technical crews, and on-air talent that brings nationally recognized programming to audiences each day, as well as the economic and workforce impact of television production in New York City. The visit will conclude with a behind-the-scenes tour of the Broadcast Center, including an exclusive look at the set of The Drew Barrymore Show, where congressional staff will see the production facilities, studio spaces, and technical operations that power one of television's most popular daytime programs.
3:45 – 4:15 PM	30-minute travel
4:15 PM – 5:30 PM	Spectrum/NY 1(1 hr. 15 min.)	75 9th Avenue, New York, NY 10011
This presentation will focus on the production and delivery of news content. Attendees will tour the newsroom and studio booths of NY1, and presenters will discuss how news is gathered and produced in remote locations, delivered back to the control room, and edited into the program stream, including during live transmissions. The Spectrum NY1 tour and presentation will educate staff about television news production to provide context that can inform later policy discussions regarding cable regulation and wireless spectrum policy. If available, one of NY1's on-air personalities will meet with the group and speak about the production and value of cable news.
