Ms. Murray Miller
Committee on Natural Resources
1333 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Ms. Miller:

Pursuant to House Rule 25, clause 5(d)(2), the Committee on Ethics hereby approves your proposed trip to Singapore and the Philippines,[1] scheduled for October 10 to 18, 2026, sponsored by Center for Strategic and International Studies and DEPLOY/US.

You must complete an Employee Post-Travel Disclosure Form (which your employing Member must also sign) and file it, together with a Sponsor Post-Travel Disclosure Form completed by the trip sponsor, with the Clerk of the House within 15 days after your return from travel. As part of that filing, you are also required to attach a copy of this letter and both the Traveler and Primary Trip Sponsor Forms (including attachments) you previously submitted to the Committee in seeking pre-approval for this trip. If you are required to file an annual Financial Disclosure Statement, you must also report all travel expenses totaling more than $525 from a single source on the "Travel" schedule of your annual Financial Disclosure Statement covering this calendar year. Finally, Travel Regulation § 404(d) also requires you to keep a copy of all request forms and supporting information provided to the Committee for three subsequent Congresses from the date of travel.

Because the trip may involve meetings with foreign government representatives, we note that House employees may accept, under the Foreign Gifts and Decorations Act (FGDA), gifts "of minimal value [currently $525] tendered as a souvenir or mark of courtesy" by a foreign government. Any tangible gifts valued in excess of minimal value received from a foreign government must, within 60 days of acceptance, be disclosed on a Form for Disclosing Gifts from Foreign Governments and either turned over to the Clerk of the House, or, with the written approval of the Committee, retained for official use.

[1] Please be aware that the Committee's review of the proposed trip does not extend to either the security situation in the destination country or security related to foreign travel in general. We recommend you contact the Office of House Security (OHS) for a safety and security briefing prior to your departure. OHS may be reached at (202) 226-2044 or ohsstaff@mail.house.gov. House travelers should also register for the U.S. State Department's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program at https://step.state.gov.

If you have any further questions, please contact the Committee's Office of Advice and Education at extension 5-7103.

Sincerely,

Michael Guest

Murray Miller
House Natural Resources Subcommittee on Energy & Mineral Resources
United States House of Representatives
1333 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Murray,

The Center for Strategic and International Studies would like to formally invite you to join a bipartisan staff delegation to Singapore and the Philippines from October 10 – October 17, 2026.

Southeast Asia is where much of the world's new energy demand will be met over the next two decades, and where U.S. companies, capital, and technology are competing for a role in that build-out. Singapore serves as the region's financial and regulatory hub, while the Philippines faces an urgent need for new baseload generation and is actively weighing options including LNG, nuclear, and geothermal. CSIS is leading this delegation to give congressional staff a firsthand understanding of the opportunities and obstacles facing U.S. energy commercial diplomacy in these emerging markets.

Over the course of the week, we will meet with U.S. Embassy teams in Singapore and Manila, and Senior officials from the Governments of Singapore and Philippines responsible for the countries' energy and infrastructure strategy. We also hope to engage sovereign wealth funds, multilateral development groups, and leading regional utilities and developers. The proposed agenda also includes possible site visits to Geothermal facilities and LNG Terminals. A final agenda with all confirmed meetings will be sent in the coming weeks.

We intend to depart Washington, D.C. on Saturday, October 10 (arriving in Singapore on Sunday, October 11) and return from Manila on Saturday, October 17. We are consulting with the House and Senate Ethics Committees in planning this trip to ensure that our plans meet the necessary requirements. This trip will be paid for and organized by CSIS, which is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) organization, and as such does not employ lobbyists.

We hope you are able to join us on this trip. We will contact you soon regarding the next steps and provide additional information as we get closer to the departure date.

Sincerely,

J Majkut

CSIS Congressional Staff Delegation to southeast Asia

October 10th to 17th, 2026

Singapore; Manila, Philippines

4. Provide names and titles of ALL House Members and employees you are inviting. For each House invitee, provide an explanation of why the individual was invited (include additional pages if necessary):

Shawn Rusterholz serves as Deputy Chief of Staff to Representative Peter Stauber (R-MN). His role supporting Congressman Stauber, whose district in northern Minnesota encompasses significant energy and mining resources, makes him a key voice on energy policy and resource development affecting American energy security and competitiveness.

Kelsey Hartman serves as Professional Staff Member on the House Natural Resources Committee's Energy and Mineral Resources Subcommittee. Her work on the subcommittee directly shapes federal policy on energy development, offshore resources, and mineral extraction, all of which intersect with the LNG, solar, and clean energy infrastructure the delegation will examine in Singapore and the Philippines.

Murray Miller serves as Staff Director of the House Natural Resources Committee under Chairman Pete Stauber (R-MN). In this role, he oversees the Committee's broad jurisdiction over federal energy and natural resources policy, including offshore energy and the permitting frameworks central to the types of floating solar and LNG projects the delegation will visit.

Sarina Weiss serves as Democratic Staff Director of the House Natural Resources Committee. Her leadership of the minority staff on the committee responsible for offshore energy, federal lands, and permitting policy gives her direct oversight over the regulatory tools that govern the types of energy infrastructure projects the delegation will examine in Singapore and the Philippines.

Emma Bruce serves as Staff Director of the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on East Asia and the Pacific under Ranking Member Ami Bera (D-CA). Her work staffing the subcommittee with direct jurisdiction over U.S. relations with the Philippines and Singapore makes her an essential participant in a delegation focused on energy diplomacy and bilateral energy cooperation in Southeast Asia.

Chris Marklund serves as Deputy Staff Director of the House Natural Resources Committee under Chairman Bruce Westerman (R-AR). His senior role on the committee with jurisdiction over offshore energy, floating solar leasing, and energy permitting directly connects to the infrastructure sites and regulatory models the delegation will explore in Singapore and the Philippines.

Elliot Shin serves as Legislative Director to Representative Carlos Gimenez (R-FL), a member of the House Select Committee on the Chinese Communist Party and the Homeland Security Committee. His portfolio covering national security and foreign policy issues, combined with Congressman Gimenez's focus on countering Chinese influence in critical sectors including energy, makes him a relevant participant in a delegation examining U.S. energy engagement in the Indo-Pacific.

Ziyan Sears serves as Senior Legislative Assistant to Representative Scott Peters (D-CA), a senior member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee. His work supporting Congressman Peters' energy and climate portfolio on one of the House's most consequential energy committees connects directly to the LNG, nuclear, and renewable energy policy discussions the delegation will engage in Singapore and the Philippines.

Quill Robinson serves as Senior Professional Staff Member on the House Foreign Affairs Committee under Chairwoman Young Kim (R-CA), who chairs the Subcommittee on East Asia and the Pacific. His work on the committee with direct oversight of U.S. diplomatic and economic engagement with the Philippines and Singapore makes him a critical participant in a delegation focused on advancing U.S. energy partnerships in Southeast Asia.

Anthony Chang serves as Staff Director of the House Financial Services Committee. His oversight of the committee responsible for development finance, export credit, and international financial institutions, including the U.S. International Development Finance Corporation which connects directly to the financing mechanisms that underpin the types of LNG and renewable energy infrastructure projects the delegation will examine in Singapore and the Philippines.

Hannah Snyder serves as a Professional Staff Member on the House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee on East Asia & Pacific. Her work on the committee with direct oversight of U.S. diplomatic and economic engagement with the Philippines and Singapore makes her a critical participant in a delegation focused on advancing U.S. energy partnerships in Southeast Asia.

Mary Martin serves as Chief Counsel for the House Energy & Commerce Subcommittee on Energy. During her time on the committee, she staffed the Energy Subcommittee markup of the Unlocking Our Domestic LNG Potential Act, as well as the committee’s nuclear energy portfolio.

James Langenderfer serves as the Staff Director for the House Foreign Affairs Committee, which has broad jurisdiction over diplomatic engagement in Southeast Asia, the HFAC Subcommittee on East Asia & Pacific, and agencies such as the Millenium Challenge Corporation, U.S. International Development Finance Corporation, and the Office of the Undersecretary of State for Economic Growth, Energy, and Environment.

Kristofer Erickson serves as the Deputy Staff Director for the House Financial Services Committee. His oversight of the committee responsible for development finance, export credit, and international financial institutions, including the U.S. International Development Finance Corporation which connects directly to the financing mechanisms that underpin the types of LNG and renewable energy infrastructure projects the delegation will examine in Singapore and the Philippines.

Megan Jackson serves as the Staff Director for the House Energy & Commerce Committee. In this capacity, she is a top Republican staffer on the House's broadest-jurisdiction energy committee. E&C has direct authority over LNG export approvals, nuclear licensing, offshore solar, and energy grid policy.

Vivian Moeglein serves as the Staff Director for the House Natural Resources Committee. In this capacity, she plays a key role on a committee with jurisdiction over offshore energy, floating solar leasing, and energy permitting directly connects to the infrastructure sites and regulatory models the delegation will explore in Singapore and the Philippines.

Sam Dunford serves as a Legislative Assistant for Rep. Mariannette Miller-Meeks. In this capacity, she covers the Congresswoman's energy portfolio and serves as a key advisor for her work on the House Energy & Commerce Committee.

Matt Margulies serves as a Senior Professional Staff Member for the House Select Committee on China. In this capacity, he serves as a top staffer for the committee's trade and energy portfolio as it relates to China and the region.

Joel Miller serves as the Deputy Staff Director for the House Energy & Commerce Committee. In this capacity, he is a top Republican staffer on the House's broadest-jurisdiction energy committee. E&C has direct authority over LNG export approvals, nuclear licensing, offshore solar, and energy grid policy.

Pete Spencer is a Senior Professional Staff Member for the House Energy & Commerce Subcommittee on Energy. For the committee, he plays a pivotal role shaping the committee's energy portfolio, specifically on issues related to LNG exports and grid policy.

12. For each sponsor required to submit a sponsor form, describe the sponsor's interest in the subject matter of the trip and its role in organizing and/or conducting the trip:

This delegation advances CSIS's mission to provide bipartisan, practical policy insights and strengthen understanding of the major geopolitical and economic challenges facing the United States. By convening congressional staff with government officials, industry leaders, researchers, and U.S. diplomats in Singapore and the Philippines, the trip will deepen policymakers' understanding of energy security, commercial diplomacy, and U.S. engagement in a strategically vital region. The delegation will provide firsthand perspectives on emerging energy markets, LNG and geothermal development, U.S.-ASEAN partnerships, and the opportunities and challenges shaping regional energy transitions—helping inform more effective U.S. policy and congressional engagement on issues central to American economic and national security.

15 b. 2) Provide the reason for selecting the location of the event or trip:

The goal of trip is to expose congressional participants to real-world case studies for U.S.-Southeast Asia energy collaboration. The trip will facilitate dialogues and knowledge sharing with relevant stakeholders in Southeast Asia
