To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is to comply with the request for information on financial disclosures contained in your letter to me dated June 17, 2011. Thank you for bringing this to my attention. I was under the mistaken impression, even after reading the regulations, that pension accounts such as the two Roth IRA's in question did not require the public disclosure that they actually do. I am happy to make the disclosures that are described below.

The following information is identical for both Roth IRA's, the one in my name and the one in my spouse's name. The same dollar amounts were put into them, the same transactions conducted—almost to the penny, and certainly within the broad outlines of the categories in Schedules III and IV—and on the same dates.

Both IRA's existed in nominal form, less than $1,000, from before February 2006, when I first announced my candidacy for Congress, through December 31, 2009. During these four calendar years there were no transactions over $1,000, and the value of neither account was more than $1,000 at any time.

The only relevant activity for both accounts was in the calendar year 2010. The following information is to complete Schedule III and Schedule IV for 2010.

For purposes of Schedule III, the assets within each of the two Roth IRA accounts at the end of 2010 included NetApp, Inc. stock, with the total value of each account being within the range previously disclosed ($1,001 to $15,000). Otherwise, the information given in Blocks A, B, C, D, and E is accurate.

For purposes of Schedule IV, both Roth IRA's had the same five transactions for 2010:

- Asset – NetApp, Inc. stock, purchased 5/25/2010 in the range of $1,001 to $15,000.
- Asset – NetApp, Inc. stock, sold 6/18/2010 in the range of $1,001 to $15,000.
- Asset – NetApp, Inc. stock, purchased 7/1/2010 in the range of $1,001 to $15,000.
- Asset – NetApp, Inc. stock, sold 9/17/2010 in the range of $1,001 to $15,000.
- Asset – NetApp, Inc. stock, purchased 10/12/2010 in the range of $1,001 to $15,000.

(This last purchase is the basis for the balance at the end of 2010 being in the $1,001 to $15,000 range. At the beginning of 2010, which is also the end of 2009, the two accounts had no assets exceeding $1000.)

This should bring everything up to date. Let me know if there is anything further I can do to be of assistance.

Yours truly,
