Personal Checking Account [OT]		$1,001 - $15,000	employment deposit	$1,001 - $2,500	None
DESCRIPTION: Most of my income is deposited here and it averages $3000-$4000 depending on when expenses are paid. So the amount of income from the preceding year reflects income I earned throughout the year that was then deposited into this account. Much of it has been spent on living expenses, which is the reason for the low balance. I have listed an approximate balance for the current year. But I do not have an amount of income from last year because it doesn't produce income, it is where my salary is depo
